

Table of Contents

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

vii

INTRODUCTION

MONIKA FLUDERNIK

The Diasporic Imaginary:

Postcolonial Reconfigurations in the Context of Multiculturalism

xi

UMA PARAMESWARAN

Dispelling the Spells of Memory:

Another Approach to Reading Our Yesterdays

xxxix

THE JEWISH DIASPORA

URSULA ZELLER

Between goldene medine and Promised Land:

Legitimizing the American Jewish Diaspora

1

BRYAN CHEYETTE

Diasporas of the Mind:

British-Jewish Writing Beyond Multiculturalism

45

BEATE NEUMEIER

Kindertransport:

Memory, Identity and the British-Jewish Diaspora

83

AMERICAN, BRITISH AND OTHER DIASPORAS: MULTICULTURALISMS AT PLAY

FEROZA JUSSAWALLA
Cultural-Rights Theory: A View from the US–Mexican Border	115
ROY SOMMER
“Simple Survival” in “Happy Multicultural Land”? Diasporic Identities and Cultural Hybridity in the Contemporary British Novel	149
MINOLI SALGADO
Nonlinear Dynamics and the Diasporic Imagination	183
VERA ALEXANDER
Postponed Arrivals: The Afro-Asian Diaspora in M.G. Vassanji’s No New Land	199
MAKARAND PARANJPE
Writing Across Boundaries: South Asian Diasporas and Homelands	231
MONIKA FLUDERNIK
Imagined Communities as Imaginary Homelands: The South Asian Diaspora in Fiction	261
ULFRIED REICHARDT
Diaspora Studies and the Culture of the African Diaspora: The Poetry of Derek Walcott, Kamau Brathwaite and Linton Kwesi Johnson	287
SANDRA HESTERMANN
The German-Turkish Diaspora and Multicultural German Identity: Hyphenated and Alternative Discourses of Identity in the Works of Zafer Şenocak and Feridun Zaimoğlu	329
CONTRIBUTORS	375
INDEX	379