

Table of contents

Abbreviations	xii
List of tables	xiv
Introduction	1
1. The new international setting	1
2. Objectives of the study	4
3. Focus of the study	8
4. Terminology	10
5. Remaking the global economic framework?	11
6. A guide through the volume	12
Chapter 1: Eastern Europe in transition	15
1. On the meanings of the CMEA	15
2. Recent developments in CMEA relations	20
1. Intragroup economic relations	20
2. Domestic economic reforms	24
3. Miscellaneous sociopolitical events	25
4. Transforming the European scene	26
3. CMEA economic relations	27
Chapter 2: Reforming CMEA integration	32
1. Core difficulties of CMEA cooperation	32
2. Gingerly acceptance of the need for renewal	35
3. The critical avenues slated in 1986-1987	38
4. Toward a unified CMEA market?	40
5. Toward radical changes?	43
Chapter 3: The treadmill of reforms in Eastern Europe	46
1. Relevance of the legacies of central planning	46
2. The first strategy of socialist economic development	47
3. Salient features of the CPE model	51
1. Comprehensive central planning	52
2. Efficiency indicators and resource allocation	53
3. Indirect coordination instruments and institutions	53
4. Foreign trade and payments regime	55
4. Objectives of economic reforms in MPEs	57
Chapter 4: On the economics of transition	65
1. Key aspirations of market orientation	65
2. The starting conditions for market-oriented reforms	69
3. Key components of market orientation	72

4. Key characteristics of the RPE	76
1. The microeconomic sphere	76
2. The macroeconomic sphere	79
5. Legacies of central planning and the transition phase	82
Chapter 5: The political economy of east-west assistance	84
1. The core issues at stake	84
2. The international context of assistance to PETs	85
3. Overview of western assistance to PETs	89
1. Financial assistance	90
2. Commercial policy facilitation	94
3. Industrial cooperation	96
4. Emergency assistance	97
5. Other types of assistance	97
4. On associating PETs with integration schemes	98
5. On providing foreign assistance to PETs	100
Chapter 6: The Marshall Plan and Eastern Europe	103
1. The overall environment of the Marshall Plan	103
2. Basic facts about the Marshall Plan	107
3. Critical components of the program	109
4. Paramount achievements of ERP	110
5. A Marshall Plan for Eastern Europe?	112
6. Key problems of an Eastern European Marshall Plan	115
Chapter 7: Property rights and privatization	120
1. On privatization and property rights	120
2. Alternative ownership forms and their implications	122
3. On privatization in Eastern Europe	124
4. The desirability of privatization	125
5. Advantages and drawbacks of privatization	127
6. Difficulties of privatizing state assets	129
1. Divestment	129
2. Private exploitation of the usufruct	131
3. Operating privatized assets	132
7. Alternative forms of privatization	133
1. Spontaneous privatization	134
2. Free distribution	134
3. Distribution of user rights	136
4. Sale of state-owned assets	137
Chapter 8: East-west assistance and PETs	139
1. Macroeconomic policy framework	139
2. On the creation of a market	143
3. Macroeconomic policies	146
4. On the sequencing of reforms	152
5. Is western assistance in need of reform?	153

Chapter 9: Remaking the CMEA and east-west assistance	159
1. General backdrop to Eastern European integration	159
2. The case for remaking the CMEA	161
3. Reforming the trade regime	166
4. Toward reform of the payments system	169
5. East-west economic assistance and the CEPU	174
6. Toward a new CMEA constitution	176
Chapter 10: PETs and the global economic system	178
1. Remaking the CMEA and the global economy	178
2. East-west economic assistance and the DEs	180
1. Impacts on trade and the international trading regime	181
2. Reforms in PETs and the international monetary regime	182
3. Reforms and international resource flows	183
4. Are concerns warranted?	184
3. PETs and the international monetary regime	185
4. PETs and the international financial regime	188
5. PETs and the international trading regime	190
6. Remaking Europe	193
Conclusions	195
Bibliography	201
Index	211