

Contents

Preface	vii
Summary	xi
Introduction	xxi
1 Stabilization and Price Liberalization	1
1.1 The Standard Stabilization Package	2
1.2 The After-effects of Stabilization	8
1.3 In What Ways Is Eastern Europe Different?	11
1.4 Three Lessons from the Polish Stabilization	17
1.5 Dealing with the Overhang	22
1.6 Elements of a Stabilization/Price Liberalization Program	29
2 Privatization	31
2.1 The Urgency of Privatization	32
2.2 Claims Must Be Given, Not Sold	36
2.3 Democratic Ownership versus Control	39
2.4 Holding Companies/Privatization Agencies	43
2.5 The Organization of Holding Companies	46

2.6 Workers, Banks, Pension Funds, and the Stock Market 51

2.7 Elements of a Privatization Program 57

3 Restructuring 59

3.1 Post-stabilization Blues, Post-war Reconstructions, and Korea 59

3.2 Initial Conditions: The Structure of Production and Trade 64

3.3 Saving, Financial Intermediation, and Foreign Direct Investment 74

3.4 The Reallocation of Labor and Unemployment 81

3.5 Carrots and Sticks 86

3.6 Why (East) Germany Is Different 91

3.7 Elements of a Restructuring Program 93

References 95