

Fictions of Presence

Theatre and Novel in Eighteenth-Century Britain

Ros Ballaster

THE BOYDELL PRESS

Published in association with

 BSECS
British Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies

Contents

Acknowledgements ix

Introduction: Being There 1

Part 1. Authors: Unconcealment and Withdrawal

1 Introducing the Authors 25

2 Eliza Haywood: Authoring Adultery 35

3 Henry Fielding: Ghost Writing 55

4 Charlotte Lennox: (In)dependent Authorship 75

5 Oliver Goldsmith: Keeping Up Authorial Appearances 95

6 From Author to Character 115

Part 2. Characters: Occupying Space

7 Introducing Characters 121

8 Outdoing Character: Lady Townly 133

9 The Sway of Character: Pamela 155

10 The Expanse of Character: Ranger 177

11 The Play of Character: Tristram 197

12 From Character to Consumer 219

Part 3. Consumers: What is Seen

13	Introducing Consumers	225
14	The Mimic	235
15	The Critic	255
	Conclusion	275
	Bibliography	283
	Index	305