

C O N T E N T S

Chapter		Page
	PREFACE/VORWORT	7
PART 1
ECONOMIC SYSTEM VERSUS MACRO-MANAGEMENT SYSTEM
1	Economic System: A Theoretical Approach	9
2	Pure Models of Economic Systems	17
3	Combinations of Different Types of Regulations	22
4	Analytical Methodology	35
5	General Characteristics of Research Object	39
PART 2
ANALYSIS OF SOVIET ECONOMIC REFORM FOUNDATIONS FROM 1945 TO 1987
6	Stalinist Period (1945-1957)	45
7	Khrushchev Reforms (1957-1964)	49
8	Kosygin and Brezhnev Reforms (1964-82)	53
9	Andropov and Gorbachev Reforms (1982-1988)	59
10	A Comparison of the Reform Cycles Between 1945-1987	66
PART 3
THE REFORM CYCLES IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA, 1944-1987
11	Post War II or Gottwald Period (1945-1953)	75
12	Novotny Period: Small Economic Reform and Its Consequences (1957-1963)	80

13	Big Reform or Prager Spring Reform (1965-1969)	85
14	Husak Period of Normalization and Stability of Power (1970-1985)	91
15	The Rhythm of Reforms in Czechoslovakia (1944-1987): Cycles and Phases	100

PART 4

THE REFORM CYCLES IN POLAND

16	Organizational Structures of Poland's Council of Ministers	105
17	Organizational Structure of Poland's Macro-Management System	122
18	Instruments of Direct and Indirect Regulation	132
19	The Polish Macro-Management System. Evolutionary Cycles and Phases. (The Qualitative Approach)	145
20	Phases and Stages in the Evolution of the Polish Macro-Management System	154

PART 5

COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS

21	Reform Cycles in the USSR, Czechoslovakia and Poland. (Similarities and Differences)	167
22	The Types of Reforms in Centrally Regulated Economies	174
23	The Causes of Economic Reforms in the USSR, Czechoslovakia and Poland	181
24	Consequences of Economic Reforms	201

	INSTEAD OF A SUMMARY	208
--	----------------------	-----

	BIBLIOGRAPHY OF WORKS CITED	209
--	-----------------------------	-----