

Contents

Preface	vi
1 How do we measure unequal? The who, where, what, when, and how of inequality	1
2 How unequal are we? Six major facts	20
3 Why might inequality be necessary? Incentives, freedom, and efficiency	38
4 Why does unequal matter? The economic externalities of inequality	57
5 Why has domestic inequality risen, and fallen, and risen?	99
6 Why are the three most important factors in global inequality location, location, and location?	132
7 Is inequality a problem we can solve?	166
8 What is the future of economic inequality?	201
Bibliography	220
Index	242