

Contents

Foreword	xiii
Preface to the Second Edition	xv
Acknowledgments	xvii

1.	Imperatives: Why Should You Care?	1
	Behind the Acronym: Voices from the Classroom	2
	Beyond the Acronym: Schools Failing Students	5
	Moving Beyond the Myths: Facts and Figures	7
	Professionalism	9
	Unions and Professionalism	10
	National Education Association	10
	American Federation of Teachers	10
	Standards and Professionalism	11
	Standards for Teacher Preparation	11
	Standards for Student Performance	12
	Implications for Assessment of Tomorrow's Teachers	13
	A More Positive Perspective	13
	Explorations	14
	Related Readings	15

2.	Culture: Beyond Tacos and Lo Mein	19
	Culture/s: Everyone Has—Many	21
	To Herd Is Human	23
	Language Norms	25
	Teachers and Language	25
	Children, Language, and Identity	27
	Beyond Language	30
	Cultural Norms, Cultural Routines, Routine Conflicts	30
	Classroom Norms, Classroom Routines,
	Classroom Conflicts	32
	Communication and Body Language	32
	Teacher and Parent Roles	34
	Values	35
	What's a Teacher to Do?	36
	Use Multicultural Literature as Windows and Mirrors	36
	Make an Effort to Visit and Learn about the Students'
	Home Communities	37
	Use the Internet	38
	Summary	38
	Explorations	39
	Related Readings	41
3.	Language: You Know More—and Less—Than You Think	43
	Language: Facets, (Mis)Perceptions, Power, and Emotion	44
	Facets of Human Language	45
	Language and (Mis)Perceptions	47
	Language and Power	50
	Language and Emotions	51
	Language Development	52
	Knowing a Word	53
	Oral Language vs. Written Language	54
	First Language Development	56
	Second Language Development	58
	Influence of the First Language and Other
	Predictable Errors	61
	The Least Teachers Need to Know about English	63
	Lexical Categories	64
	Word Order	66

	Cognates	66
	Morphemes	67
	Summary	68
	Explorations	68
	Related Readings	70
4.	Nurturing Literacy in English: Ways to Empower Students	73
	What Is Literacy?	74
	Definitions: Who Cares? (You Should!)	74
	The World as Text, Reading as Transaction, and Emergent Literacy	75
	The World as Text	75
	Reading as Transaction	76
	Emergent Literacy	78
	Finally: A Definition of Literacy	79
	Implications: Literacy as Power in the World	79
	How Does Literacy in English Develop?	81
	Teachers' Misreading	81
	Literacy in First Language vs. Second Language	82
	Oral Language Development	87
	Implications: Cultural Capital and Classroom Discourse	88
	Cultural Capital	88
	Classroom Discourse	90
	Literacy: Beyond C-A-T and into Social Consequences	91
	Summary	92
	Explorations	92
	Related Readings	93
5.	Effective Instruction and Assessment: Good Teaching for
	ELLs Is Good Teaching	95
	Essentials for Any Inclusive Classroom	96
	Building an Inclusive and Supportive Classroom
	Community	97
	Respect	97
	Physical Environment	98
	Predictability	98
	Relationships	99

Building Vocabulary	100
Ongoing Assessment	102
Guidelines for ELL Instruction: An Introduction to WIDA	104
WIDA: Standards and Levels of English Proficiency	107
WIDA Standards	107
Levels of English Proficiency	107
WIDA: MPIs as Guides to Differentiated Instruction	109
Additional Resources from WIDA 2007, 2012	110
An Overview of Instructional Strategies	111
Initial Phase Instruction for Entering and
Early Beginning Levels	112
Intermediate Phase Instruction for
Beginning and Early Developing Levels	113
Elaboration Phase Instruction for Late Developing,
Expanding, and Bridging Levels	114
Common Instructional Strategies Useful to
All Students—including ELLs	114
Summary	115
Explorations	116
Related Readings	116
 6. The Politics of ELL Policy and Programs: What Does
It Mean to Be “American”?	119
Immigration and Assimilation: Then and Now	121
Then	121
Now	123
Limitations of This Discussion	126
From Politics to Policy and Programs: A Tower of Babel	127
Terms to Describe Students	127
Terms to Describe Programs and Pedagogies	129
What Does Research Say about Alternative Approaches?	132
A Closing Thought on Professionalism:
Who Will You Be Tomorrow?	134
Explorations	135
Related Readings	136

Appendix: Resources for the Classroom Teacher of
English Language Learners	139
Books for Classroom Practice	139
Books for Understanding Learners, Parents,
and Immigrant Communities	141
Books for Explorations in Linguistics, Literacy,
Philosophy, and Psychology	141
Book Chapters for Classroom Practice	142
Journal Articles for Classroom Practice	142
Online Resources	142
Videos	145
Index	147