

Contents

List of figures	vii
List of contributors	viii
Acknowledgements	xii
1 Introduction: the politics and economics of Brexit Annette Bongardt, Leila Simona Talani and Francisco Torres	1
PART I THE POLITICS OF BREXIT
2 Brexit as a question of political rationality: hard choices for the UK, lessons for EU sustainability Annette Bongardt and Francisco Torres	11
3 The road to Brexit: European integration, the UK and the failure of the “malign neglect” strategy toward the EU Roberto Di Quirico	38
4 Brexit, sovereignty and devolution: the view of constitutional law Stefania Baroncelli and Monica Rosini	56
5 Globally alone: the UK’s foreign policy after Brexit Emidio Diodato and Serena Giusti	88
PART II THE ECONOMICS OF BREXIT
6 The role of social capital explaining Brexit Pompeo Della Posta and Scheherazade S. Rehman	108
7 UK dithering over Brexit: on the European single market and its regulatory model Annette Bongardt	138
8 Brexit and the future of the City of London: between deregulation and innovation Leila Simona Talani	162

9	Brexit adds to Europe's need for economic rebalancing and technological impetus	181
	Rémi Bourgeot
10	Brexit: what have we learnt?	204
	Annette Bongardt, Leila Simona Talani and Francisco Torres
	Index	211