

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction ix

Part I Overview 1

1. Recent Political and Economic Developments in South Africa and Their Effects on U.S. Firms 3

John Kane-Berman

2. Transforming Apartheid: The Interplay of Internal and External Forces 39

Heribert Adam

Part II Operating in South Africa 65

3. Industry and Labor: A Management Perspective 67

Fred Ferreira

4. Industry and Labor: A Trade Union Perspective 77

Halton Cheadle

5. Corporations and Urban Community Development 89

Griffiths Zabala

6. Corporations and Rural Development 97

Oscar Dhlomo

Part III Four South African Perspectives 107

7. Strategies in the Struggle for Liberation in South Africa and the Shape of Political Events to Come 109

Gatsha Buthelezi

8. White Power Politics: Economic and Political Choices Facing South Africa 123

Leonard Mosala

9. The Imperative of Enlightened Self-Interest in South Africa 131

Tony Bloom

10. The Challenge Facing Business in South Africa 141

Hermann Giliomee

Appendix A: Statistical View of South Africa 157

Appendix B: The U.S. Business Presence in South Africa 161

Appendix C: Disinvestment 211

Appendix D: Divestment 215

Appendix E: The Sullivan Principles 217

Appendix F: Federal and State Actions 225

Appendix G: U.S. Corporate Contributions to Black South African Development 233

Appendix H: Organization Address List 235

Index 237

About the Contributors 241

About the Editors 243