

Contents

Media language

- | | |
|------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 1 Semiotics: Roland Barthes | 1 |
| Concept 1: denotation and connotation | 1 |
| Concept 2: the media's ideological effect | 11 |
| 2 Structuralism: Claude Lévi-Strauss | 15 |
| Concept 1: binary oppositions | 15 |
| Concept 2: binary oppositions and ideological significance | 20 |
| 3 Narratology: Tzvetan Todorov | 27 |
| Concept 1: the three act ideal | 27 |
| Concept 2: the ideological effects of story structure | 35 |
| 4 Genre theory: Steve Neale | 39 |
| Concept 1: repetition and difference | 39 |
| Concept 2: industry effects on genre-driven content | 45 |
| 5 Postmodernism: Jean Baudrillard | 50 |
| Key concept: the real and the hyperreal | 50 |

Media representation

- 6 Representation: Stuart Hall 60
Concept 1: media representation processes 60
Concept 2: stereotypes and power 63
- 7 Postcolonial theory: Paul Gilroy 72
Concept 1: racial binaries, otherness and civilisationism 72
Concept 2: the legacy of Empire and British identity 77
- 8 Feminist theory: Liesbet van Zoonen 82
Concept 1: the female body as spectacle 82
Concept 2: masculinity in the media 88
- 9 Intersectionality: bell hooks 92
Concept 1: interconnected oppression 92
Concept 2: hooks' call to action 97
- 10 Gender as performance: Judith Butler 102
Concept 1: gendered identities are constructed through repetition and ritual 102
Concept 2: gender subversion and gendered hierarchies 106
- 11 Media and identity: David Gauntlett 113
Concept 1: traditional and post-traditional media consumption 113
Concept 2: reflexive identity construction 115

Media industries

- 12 Ownership effects: James Curran and Jean Seaton 125
Concept 1: media concentration 126
Concept 2: effects of concentration on media content 131

Concept 3: diverse ownership creates diverse products	135
13 Regulation: Sonia Livingstone and Peter Lunt	141
Concept 1: citizen and consumer models of media regulation	142
Concept 2: regulation in the globalised media age	148
14 The culture industry: David Hesmondhalgh	153
Concept 1: maximising profits and minimising risks	154
Concept 2: the effects of the internet revolution are difficult to diagnose	159
 Media audiences
15 Media modelling effects: Albert Bandura	165
Concept 1: violent behaviours are learned through modelling	165
Concept 2: audiences copy media modelling	166
16 Cultivation theory: George Gerbner	176
Concept 1: fear cultivation	176
Concept 2: media consumption leads audiences to accept mainstream ideologies	181
17 Reception theory: Stuart Hall	188
Concept 1: encoding and decoding	188
Concept 2: dominant, negotiated and oppositional decoding	193
18 Fandom: Henry Jenkins	198
Concept 1: fan appropriation	198
Concept 2: audience–producer convergence in the digital age	201
Concept 3: fans use participatory culture to effect wider social change	205

19 The end of audience: Clay Shirky	211
Concept 1: everybody makes the media	211
Concept 2: everyday communities of practice	218
Works cited	223
Index	226