

Contents

Introduction	1
Forms of the FES	2
The Real Form.....	2
The Ideal Form	2
The Expectations Form	3
The Children's Version	3
Administration and Scoring	4
Administration	4
Scoring	4
Applications for Clinicians, Consultants, and Program Evaluators..	6
When Is an Assessment of a Family Useful?	6
Interpreting Family Profiles	7
Clinical Case Descriptions	10
A Typology of Family Environments	19
Promoting Family Growth	21
Steps in Assessing and Changing Family Environments	21
Key Aspects of the Assessment and Feedback Process	25
Training Students and Family Counselors	26
Development, Norms, and Psychometric Characteristics	27
Development	27
Family Incongruence Score	28
Normative Samples	29
Internal Consistencies and Intercorrelations	32
Test-Retest Reliability and Profile Stability	33
Means and Standard Deviations for Special Groups of Families ...	35
Cross-Cultural Norms and Psychometric Characteristics	38
Methodological and Statistical Issues	38
Content and Construct Validity	41

Research Applications and Validity	44
A Conceptual Framework	44
Family Environment and Child Development	47
Families of Youth with Medical Disorders	57
Families of Youth with Psychiatric Disorders.....	66
Families of Youth with Substance Use and Conduct Disorders.....	69
Families with a History of Physical or Sexual Abuse	72
Family Environment and Adult Adaptation	74
Families of Adults with Medical Disorders	76
Families of Adults with Psychiatric Disorders.....	81
Families of Adults with Addictive Use Disorders.....	87
Determinants of Family Climate	90
Coping With Life Transitions and Crises	97
Outcomes of Family Oriented Interventions.....	103
Overall Summary.....	106
 References	 108

Appendices

A. Form R Raw Score to Standard Score Conversion Table	157
B. Family Incongruence Score Computation Example and Raw Score to Standard Score Conversion Table	159
C. Means and Standard Deviations for Special Groups of Families	161

Forms and Scoring

Form R Item Booklet	167
Form I Item Booklet	171
Form E Item Booklet	175
Answer Sheet	179
Scoring Key	181
Profile	182