

Contents

TABLES ix

preface xi

Part One The Historical Background

- 1 The Emergence of Jewish Civilization 3
- 2 The Second Commonwealth 20
- 3 Beyond the Second Commonwealth – the Exilic Period and the Predominance of the Rabbinical Mould 30
- 4 The Modern Times 53

Part Two The Zionist Movement and the Settlement in the Land of Israel

- 5 The Zionist Movement and Ideology 83
- 6 The Settlement in the Land of Israel – the Yishuv 100

Part Three The State of Israel – Crystallization of Institutional Moulds

- 7 The State of Israel – Historical Setting 147
- 8 The Political Mould 169
- 9 Political Economy and Strata Formation 198
- 10 Educational and Cultural Contours 254
- 11 Absorption and Integration of Immigrants and the Emergence and Transformations of the ‘Ethnic’ Problem 294
- 12 Israel and Minority Populations – the Arabs and Other Minorities in Israel 331
- 13 Israeli Society in the Late 1960s and Early 1970s – the Six Day
War and its Aftermath 343

Part Four The State of Israel – Change and Transformation

- 14 The Yom Kippur War and its Aftermath – Change and Transition 387

15	The Conditions of the Disintegration of the Initial Institutional Mould of Israeli Society	403
16	The New Historical Experience of Jewish Communities in the Diaspora and the Place of the State of Israel	443
17	The Late 1970s and the 1980s – Change, Transition and Confrontation	489
18	Israeli Society in the 1980s – Trends, Developments and Problems	509
	CONCLUDING REFLECTIONS – The Jewish Re-Entry into History and its Problems	557
	SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY	567
	INDEX	577