

Contents

Acknowledgments	11
-----------------	----

Part I

Introduction

The Low Countries' Paradox	15
Historical Perspectives on Inequality and the City Bruno BLONDÉ, Sam GEENS, Hilde GREEFS, Wouter RYCKBOSCH, Tim SOENS and Peter STABEL

Part II

The Urbanisation of Inequality

Get Rich and Try Dyeing	45
Cloth Production and Social Inequality in Town and Countryside (Sixteenth Century) Jim VAN DER MEULEN
Did Urban Manure Nourish the Country?	63
Social Consequences of Fertiliser Improvement in Eighteenth-Century Flemish Farming Pieter DE GRAEF
Cities in Motion	79
Mobility, Migration Selectivity and Demographic Change in Belgian Cities, 1846-1910 Hilde GREEFS and Anne WINTER
Organising the Work-Home Split by the Urban-Rural Link	101
Transport Networks, Mobility and Urbanisation in Early Twentieth-Century Belgium Ingrid SCHEPERS, Janet POLASKY, Ann VERHETSEL and Greet DE BLOCK
The City and the Parking Lot	123
Movement and Standstill on the 21 st -century Urban Labour Market Ann COENEN

Part III
Politics of Inequality

---

The Impact of Urban Elites' Political Participation on Economic Policy in the Low Countries 1100-1600	141
Wim BLOCKMANS
Si grant inégalité?	153
Town, Countryside and Taxation in Flanders, c. 1350 – c. 1500
Thijs LAMBRECHT
The Rise of the Fiscal State?	169
Urban Finances, Politics and Social Inequality in Sixteenth-Century 's-Hertogenbosch
Bruno BLONDÉ, Jord HANUS and Wouter RYCKBOSCH
An Experiment of Social Equality?	183
The Case of the Calvinist Republic in Antwerp (1577-1585)
Guido MARNEF
Law Courts and Social Inequality in the Cities of the Eighteenth-Century Low Countries	199
Griet VERMEESCH

Part IV
Shocks, Crises and Inequality

---

The Great Destruction of People and Wealth	213
The Impact of the Ghent Revolt on Wealth Inequality in the Last Quarter of the Fourteenth Century
Sam GEENS
Levelling Through Space?	231
The Redistributive Capacity of Demographic Decline in Antwerp's Darkest Hour (1584-1586)
Rogier van KOOTEN
Real Property, Speculation and Housing Inequality	251
Bruges, 1550-1670
Heidi DENEWETH

Part V:
Cultural and Consumer Dynamics of Inequality

Craft Guilds as Vectors of Middle-Class Values	271
Peter STABEL and Anke DE MEYER
In Haste for Better Taste?	289
The Social Effects of Changing Dining Cultures in Fifteenth- and Sixteenth-Century Bruges
Inneke BAATSEN
Comforts of Difference	309
Social Inequality and the Material Culture of Energy in Eighteenth-Century Ghent
Wout SAELENS
Violent classes?	329
Interpersonal Violence and Social Inequality in Mechelen, 1350-1700
Maarten F. VAN DIJCK
The New Police as Agents of Class Control?	343
Urban Policing and its Socio-Geographical Focus in Nineteenth-Century Antwerp
Margo DE KOSTER and Antoon VRINTS

Part VI
Methodological, Theoretical and Contemporary Perspectives

How was City Life?	359
Moving beyond GDP and Real Income to Measure Pre-modern Welfare and Inequality Levels
Maïka DE KEYZER
Diachrony, Synchrony and Modernity	377
How to Contribute to the Debate on Economic Inequality from an Historical Perspective?
Bert DE MUNCK
Different systems and inequalities?	397
Comparing education in the Low Countries
Noel CLYCO, Lore VAN PRAAG and François LEVRAU
Aipril	411