

CONTENTS

1	An Introduction to the Economics of Nonmarket Behavior	1
	The Plan of the Book / 6
I	JUSTICE AND EFFICIENCY
2	Blackstone and Bentham	13
	Blackstone's Commentaries / 13
	Bentham's Antipathy to Blackstone / 31
	Blackstone and Bentham Compared / 39
3	Utilitarianism, Economics, and Social Theory	48
	Some Problems of Utilitarianism / 51
	Wealth Maximization as an Ethical Concept / 60
4	The Ethical and Political Basis of Wealth Maximization	88
	The Consensual Basis of Efficiency / 88
	Implications for the Positive Economic Analysis of Law / 103
	Dworkin's Critique of Wealth Maximization / 107
II	THE ORIGINS OF JUSTICE
5	The Homeric Version of the Minimal State	119
	A Taxonomy of Limited Government / 120

Government and Political Values in Homer / 123
The Homeric Social Order / 135
Homeric Individualism / 140
Some Modern Parallels / 142
The Theory of the State / 143
6 A Theory of Primitive Society	146
The Costs of Information / 146
A Model of Primitive Society / 150
Other Primitive Adaptations to High Information Costs / 168
7 The Economic Theory of Primitive Law	174
The Legal Process / 174
Property / 179
Contracts / 182
Family Law / 184
The System of Strict Liability in Tort / 192
Criminal Law / 203
8 Retribution and Related Concepts of Punishment	207
From Revenge to Retribution, and Beyond / 208
Pollution: Retribution against Neighbors and Descendants / 217
Guilt versus Responsibility / 224
 III PRIVACY AND RELATED INTERESTS
9 Privacy as Secrecy	231
The Economics of Private Information and Communications / 232
The Tort Law of Privacy / 254
10 A Broader View of Privacy	268

The Etymology of Privacy: Seclusion and Autonomy / 268
Evidence for the Economic Theory of Privacy / 276
The Common Law and the Economic Theory of Privacy / 282
Defamation and Disparagement / 287
The Statutory Privacy Movement / 299
11 The Privacy Jurisprudence of the Supreme Court	310
Privacy Cases before Griswold / 311
The Griswold Decision / 323
Privacy in the Supreme Court since Griswold / 329
Conclusion / 345
 IV THE SUPREME COURT AND DISCRIMINATION
12 The Law and Economics of Discrimination	351
13 The DeFunis Case and Reverse Discrimination	364
The Reasonableness of Reverse Discrimination / 365
The Constitutional Issue / 375
14 Bakke , Weber , and Beyond	387
Bakke / 387
Weber / 404
Index	409