

Table of contents

Acknowledgements	VII
Introduction	1
Wataru Suzuki and Neomy Storch
Section I. Languaging: Other-directed talk (collaborative dialogue)
CHAPTER 1
Child EFL grammar learning through a collaborative writing task	19
Asier Calzada and María del Pilar García Mayo
CHAPTER 2
The role of L1 use by high-proficiency learners in L2 vocabulary development: A quasi-experimental study of L1 languaging	41
Masatoshi Sato and Isidora Angulo
CHAPTER 3
Languaging and grammatical terminology: Expressing linguistic concepts while co-constructing understandings	67
Paul D. Toth, Kara Moranski, Ashley Shaffer and Raquel Mattson-Prieto
CHAPTER 4
Exploring interaction between heritage and second language learners in the Spanish language classroom: Opportunities for collaborative dialogue and learning	91
Ana Fernández-Dobao
CHAPTER 5
Languaging when providing and processing peer feedback	111
Neomy Storch and Ali Alshuraidah
CHAPTER 6
Languaging: Chinese students rewrite a narrative in English	129
Luxin Yang

CHAPTER 7
Languageing in wiki-based collaborative writing: Functions and mediating factors		149
Mimi Li
Section II. Languageing: Self-directed talk
II.1 Oral self-directed talk
CHAPTER 8
Talking about language: L2 learners' use of metalinguistic knowledge on contrasting pedagogic tasks		175
Gabriela Adela Gánem-Gutiérrez and Karen Roehr-Brackin
CHAPTER 9
Talking to self while writing: Second-language writers' languageing processes and reflections		197
Yuko Watanabe
II.2 Written self-directed talk (written languageing)
CHAPTER 10
L2 learning and the frequency and quality of written languageing		219
Masako Ishikawa and Andrea Révész
CHAPTER 11
L2 writers' processing of written corrective feedback: Depth of processing via written languageing		241
Rosa M. Manchón, Florentina Nicolás-Conesa, Lourdes Cerezo and Raquel Criado
CHAPTER 12
Effects of written languageing in response to direct and indirect corrective feedback on developing writing accuracy		267
Mahmood Reza Moradian, Mojgan Hossein-Nasab and Mowla Miri
CHAPTER 13
Exploring the mediating role of emotions expressed in L2 written languageing in ESL learner text revisions		287
Daphnée Simard and Michael Zuniga
Index		309