

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
Preface to the Series Béla K. Király	ix

I

Generalizations

The Five Paradoxes of East Central European Society and Warfare From the Mid-Eighteenth Century to the 1920s Béla K. Király	3
East Central European Society and Warfare, 1740-1920: A Synthesis Stephen Fischer-Galati	27
The Influence of the Wars of the Revolution and of the Napoleonic Empire on the Wars of Liberation of the Balkan Peoples in the Nineteenth Century: The Example of Greece Georges Castellan	35

II

The Armed Forces

The Nationality Problem in the Habsburg Army, 1740-1920 Gunther E. Rothenberg	47
Jews in the Austro-Hungarian Army Erwin A. Schmidl	69
Evolution of the Bulgarian Armed Forces From the Eighteenth Century Until 1920 Iliya Iliyev and Momchil Yonov	85
The Social Role of the Serbian Army Before World War I: A Synthesis Gale Stokes	105

Officer Conspirators and Nationalism in Serbia, 1901-1914	117
David Mackenzie
The Hellenic Army From Independence to the 1920s	151
Hellenic Army General Staff, Army History Directorate
Evolution of the Polish Armed Forces, 1764-1921	167
Leonard Ratajczyk
The Polish Armed Forces and War, 1764-1864	185
Emanuel Halicz

III

The Home Front

The Balkan Peasantry, 1740-1914: A Synthesis	193
Dimitrije Djordjevic
In Support of the Civil Authority: The Armed Forces and Parliamentary Election in Hungary, 1867-1914	223
Ferenc Tibor Zsuppan
War and Peace as Seen in Romanian Public Opinion	243
Ioan Talpes
Popular Support of Wars in Modern Romania	251
Stefan Stefanescu

IV

Armed Forces and Cultural Life

War and Literature in Eighteenth and Nineteenth Century Hungary	259
Ivan Sanders
The Impact of the Wars of Independence on Romanian Culture and Science	269
Constantin Căzânisteanu

Maps

At the end of the book