

CONTENTS

Leo Panitch Greg Albo	Preface	ix
Ursula Huws	Reaping the whirlwind: Digitalization, restructuring, and mobilization in the Covid crisis	1
Bryan D. Palmer	The time of our lives: Reflections on work and capitalist temporality	14
Larry Lohmann	Interpretation machines: Contradictions of ‘artificial intelligence’ in 21st-century capitalism	50
Matthew Cole Hugo Radice Charles Umney	The political economy of datafication and work: A new digital Taylorism?	78
Grace Blakeley	The big tech monopolies and the state	100
Tanner Mirrlees	Socialists on social media platforms: Communicating within and against digital capitalism	112
Derek Hrynshyn	Imagining platform socialism	137
Massimiliano Mollona	Working-class cinema in the age of digital capitalism	153
Joan Sangster	The surveillance of service labour: Conditions and possibilities of resistance	175

Jerónimo Montero Bressán	From neoliberal fashion to new ways of clothing	201
Sean Sweeney John Treat	Shifting gears: Labour strategies for low-carbon public transit mobility	218
Benjamin Selwyn	Community restaurants: Decommodifying food as socialist strategy	235
Pat Armstrong Huw Armstrong	Start early, stay late: Planning for care in old age	246
Pritha Chandra Pratyush Chandra	Health care, technology, and socialized medicine	257
Christoph Hermann	Life after the pandemic: From production for profit to provision for need	274
Robin Hahnel	Democratic socialist planning: Back to the future	291
Greg Albo	Postcapitalism: Alternatives or detours?	310