

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
1 An Overview	1
1.1 Introduction	1
1.2 Different Senses of Rationality and their Explanations and Prescriptions	3
1.3 Evaluating Rationality Postulates	6
1.4 Final Comments	9
Part I Rationality
2 Empiricism and Rationality	15
2.1 Introduction	15
2.2 Empiricist Methodologies in Economics	16
2.3 Duhem and Quine	19
2.4 Popper, Kuhn and Lakatos	22
2.5 Rules and Meaning in the Hermeneutic Tradition	25
2.6 Rationality	29
2.7 Conclusion	32
Part II Rationality and Explanation
3 Instrumental Rationality	39
3.1 Introduction	39
3.2 Instrumental Rationality in a Parametric Environment	40
3.3 The Strategic Dimension of Instrumental Rationality	46
3.4 A Preliminary Evaluation	51
3.5 Conclusion	54
4 Information	56
4.1 Introduction	56
4.2 Rational Expectations	56
4.3 The Institutional Influence on Information	66
4.4 Conclusion	69
5 Institutions	70
5.1 Introduction	70
5.2 Institutions as Solutions to Repeated Games	72

5.3	The Scope of Repeated Game Explanations of Institutions	77
5.4	The Prisoner's Dilemma	81
5.5	The Informational Influences on Institutions	85
5.6	Conclusion	88
6	Are You Instrumentally Rational?	91
6.1	Introduction	91
6.2	Interdependent Preferences	92
6.3	Rules and Meaning Again	99
6.4	Preference Change	103
6.5	Contradictory Desires	110
6.6	Sub-Intentional Causal Explanation	112
6.7	Conclusion	115
7	Procedural Rationality	116
7.1	Introduction	116
7.2	Procedural Rationality in Economics	121
7.3	Procedural Rationality in Everyday Life	128
7.4	Functional Explanation	130
7.5	The Legacy of History	140
7.6	Discourse within the Social Sciences	143
7.7	Conclusion	146
8	Expressive Rationality	148
8.1	Introduction	148
8.2	Strategies for Self-Respect	151
8.3	Responses to 'modernity'	156
8.4	Consumption Behaviour	160
8.5	Decision Making under Uncertainty	163
8.6	The Entrepreneur and Intrapreneurship	165
8.7	Cognitive Dissonance	169
8.8	Trust and Co-operation	170
8.9	The Instrumental, The Procedural and The Expressive	172
8.10	Conclusion	176
 Part III Rationality and Prescription
9	Instrumental Rationality and Welfare Economics	181
9.1	Introduction	181
9.2	The Impasse in Orthodox Welfare Economics	184
9.3	Sen and Capabilities	192
9.4	Nozick and the New Right	199
9.5	Conclusion	206

CONTENTS

vii

10 Conclusion	208
10.1 Introduction	208
10.2 A Restatement	208
10.3 Explanation and Prescription I	216
10.4 Explanation and Prescription II	221
References	225
Index	233