

Contents

Preface	xiii
PART I DON'T SHOOT THE TRUMPETER!
PROBLEMS OF FAIR DIVISION	1
CHAPTER 1. THE CASE OF THE NOXIOUS NEIGHBORS	3
1. Two Theories of Justice	3
2. Bargaining and Arbitration	9
3. Two Lectures	30
4. Braithwaite versus Nash	33
5. Bargaining and Equal Utility Gain	41
CHAPTER 2. WHAT IS A FAIR SOLUTION?	50
6. Fair Division of the Cooperative Surplus	50
7. Alternative Baselines	56
8. What's Wrong with Threat Advantage?	68
9. Baseline-Independence	76
10. A Resourcist Solution	85
CHAPTER 3. FAIR DIVISION FROM A WIDER PERSPECTIVE	96
11. Introduction	96
12. The Elusiveness of Utility	101
13. Implications	110

14. Social Rules and Fair Division	128
15. Smoking and Contemporary Mores	133
16. Conclusion to Part I	139
PART II HUME AND RAWLS ON JUSTICE IN SOCIETY	143
CHAPTER 4. HUME ON JUSTICE	145
17. Introduction	145
18. The Circumstances of Justice	152
19. Justice and Impartiality	163
20. Implications of the Two Theories for the Rules of Justice	168
21. Hume's Legacy as a Problem of Fair Division	173
CHAPTER 5. RAWLS ON JUSTICE (1): INTERNATIONAL AND INTERGENERATIONAL JUSTICE	179
22. The Circumstances of Justice	179
23. International Justice	183
24. Intergenerational Justice	189
25. Why Not Noah's Ark?	203
CHAPTER 6. RAWLS ON JUSTICE (2): THE DIFFERENCE PRINCIPLE	213
26. Introduction	213
27. From Equal Opportunity to Equality	217
28. From Equality to the Difference Principle	226
29. Why a Cooperative Venture?	234
30. Why Mutual Advantage?	241
PART III JUSTICE AS MUTUAL ADVANTAGE VERSUS JUSTICE AS IMPARTIALITY	255
CHAPTER 7. SOME QUESTIONS OF METHOD	257
31. Introduction	257
32. Intuitionism	260
33. Constructivism	264
34. Is Constructivism a Form of Intuitionism?	271
35. Justice as Impartiality	282

CHAPTER 8.	CONSTRUCTING THEORIES OF JUSTICE (1): TWO-STAGE THEORIES	293
	36. Introduction	293
	37. Two-Stage Foundations of Social Institutions	299
	38. Fair Division and Social Justice	304
CHAPTER 9.	CONSTRUCTING THEORIES OF JUSTICE (2): ORIGINAL POSITION THEORIES	320
	39. Introduction	320
	40. Justice as Fairness	322
	41. Constructing an Original Position	330
	42. Original Positions without Self-Interest	340
CHAPTER 10.	CONCLUSION	354
	43. The Subject of Social Justice	354
	44. Justice and Motivation	357
	45. The Content of Justice	366
	46. Envoi	372
Appendix A	Braithwaite's Solution and Rationale	377
Appendix B	Splitting the Difference as a Bargaining Solution	388
Appendix C	Economic Motivation in a Rawlsian Society	393
Notes		401
Index		421