

Contents

---

List of contributors	vii
1 Introduction Luca Zamparini and Ubaldo Villani-Lubelli	1
PART I HISTORICAL AND POLITICAL PROFILES
2 The EU budget and the European integration process: a historical analysis Ubaldo Villani-Lubelli	12
3 The EU budget between bargaining tool and policy instrument Mario Kölling	30
4 ‘No representation without taxation’. For a history of budgetary control in the European Union Alessandro Isoni	44
5 Citizens’ attitudes toward the EU budget: an overview Karsten Mause	60
6 The Multiannual Financial Framework: reforms and path-dependent development of the EU budget Robert Kaiser	73
7 Towards a closer Intergovernmental Union? The political implications of the 2021–2027 Multiannual Financial Framework negotiations Matteo Scotto	93
PART II LEGAL AND ECONOMIC PROFILES
8 The EU budget and the MFF between flexibility and unity Peter Becker	107

9	The European framework for monitoring and control of the EU budget Elsa Perreau	128
10	Growth, competitiveness and the EU budget Luca Zamparini	145
11	The relevance of the EU budget for the structural balances of Member States Maurizia Pierri	163
12	Brexit and the EU Budget Margit Schratzenstaller	180
13	Conclusions Ubaldo Villani-Lubelli and Luca Zamparini	205
	Index	211