

CONTENTS

PREFACE	xi
---------	----

INTRODUCTION

The Burke Problem	3
--------------------------	---

CHAPTER 1

Mythic Burke: The Prophet of Conservatism	12
Bourgeois Radicalism and the Subversion of the Ancien Régime	13
Burke's Conservatism before 1789	20
The Counterrevolution of Edmund Burke	27
The Making of a Prophet: From Holy War to Cold War	39

CHAPTER 2

Tory Prophet as Irish Schoolboy (1729–1749)	52
"I Am a Runaway Son from a Father"	53
Adolescence: Burke and Dick Shackleton	65

CHAPTER 3

Burke's "Missing Years" (1750–1756)	69
"Cousin Will" and the New Burke	70

- Of Marriage and Ambition 79
 The Question of Homosexuality 83

CHAPTER 4

- The New Burke: Service and Ambition (1756–1768)* 88
 Vindicating Burke's Vindication 88
 Burke's Aesthetics Revisited 93
 Picking a Patron: Hamilton and Rockingham 99

CHAPTER 5

- Present Discontents (1768–1774)* 106
 Of Bold New Men 106
 Party and the Ideal of Service 112

CHAPTER 6

- Recovery: Burke and His Betters (1774–1782)* 116
 Ambition and America 116
 On Activity and Passivity 121

CHAPTER 7

- Obsession One: Indianism (1783–1795)* 126
 "Whether the White People Like It or Not" 127
 "The Avarice of the English Dominion" 129
 "Unbridled Debauchery and Licentious Lewdness" 134

CHAPTER 8

- Obsession Two: Jacobinism (1789–1797)* 143
 Of "Overbearing and Desperate Ambition" 143
 "An Abandoned Love of Sensual Pleasure" 151

Bourgeois Burke	157
Of Parties, Popes, and Potentates	166

CHAPTER 9

"Pain and Sorrows" (1794–1797)	169
"I Am Past and Gone By" 170
"Not about Popes but about Potatoes": The Relevance of Ireland 175
"They Bark at Me": On Burke's Madness 180

CHAPTER 10

Epilogue: Burke and His Age	190
NOTES	197
INDEX	221