

Contents

	Introduction	1
CHAPTER I	Theory of Law and Legislation	13
	1 Positive Law and Economic Law	27
	2 International Law and Interference in a Foreign Nation	31
CHAPTER II	Prudence as a Political Virtue	35
CHAPTER III	The State and Society	43
	1 The Nature of Society	43
	2 What Is a "People"?	49
	3 Liberty and Natural Rights	64
	4 Liberty within the Social Order	67
CHAPTER IV	Government and Human Nature	82
	1 On Conciliation with the American Colonies	82
	2 Religion and the State	104
	3 Manners	125
CHAPTER V	Practical Politics	132
	1 Political Parties	132
	2 Aristocracy and Leadership	139
	3 The Duties of Popular Representatives	146
	4 Elections and Parliamentary Reform	150
CHAPTER VI	Reform and Tradition	156
	1 Tradition and Change	156
	2 Principles of Reform	165
CHAPTER VII	Tradition in the English Establishment	176
	1 The English Constitution	176
	2 Prescription and Property	208

CHAPTER VIII	Jacobinism	231
	1 The New Morality of France and Rousseau	246
CHAPTER IX	Aesthetics: The Psychology of the Sublime	256
	Appendix: Leading Dates of Burke's Life	268
	Suggestions for Further Reading	269
	Index	270