

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Choosing English: An Introduction 1

1 History of the English Language 9

Case Study: Do Hip-Hop Artists Have a Larger and More
Unique Vocabulary in English than Shakespeare? 26

2 Linguistics 31

Case Study: American Sign Language: Can a Language
Have No Sound? 47

3 Literature 53

Case Study: I'm Not Dead Yet: Jean Rhys's Evolving Reputation in Literary Studies 72

4 Cinema, Popular Culture, and New Media 79

Case Study: The Television Series Game of Thrones 103

Part 1: From Page to Screen (Cinema) 103

Part 2: Cinema after the Internet (Popular Culture and New Media) 107

5 Rhetoric and Composition 111

Case Study: Hashtag Activism: Social Movements in the Internet Age 129

6 Creative Writing 133

Case Study: Reading for Craft, Writing with Craft: Writing like a Successful Author 150

7 Professional Writing and Technical Communication 155

Case Study: Document Design and Content: Thinking
“Outside the Box” with Document Design 170

8 Critical Theory 177

Case Study: Everybody’s a Critic—or Can Be: Reading
Critical Theory and Becoming Part of the Critical Conversation 197

9 English Education 203

Case Study: Multicultural Literature Lesson Plan
for ELA: Creating a Lesson Plan for an ELA Unit
According to State Standards 219

10 English Studies in the Digital Age 223

Case Study: Applying Digital Tools for Creative Writing and Literary Analysis 234

Glossary 239

Index 277