

OUTLINE CONTENTS

DETAILED CONTENTS	vii
PREFACE	xv
NEW TO THIS EDITION	xvi
LIST OF FIGURES	xvii
LIST OF BOXES	xviii
LIST OF TABLES	xx
ABBREVIATIONS AND ACRONYMS	xxii
LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS	xxxi
EDITORS' NOTE	xxxii

PART I Institutions, Process, and Analytical Approaches

1 An Overview	3
Mark A. Pollack, Christilla Roederer-Rynning, and Alasdair R. Young
2 Theorizing EU Policy-Making	13
Mark A. Pollack
3 The EU Policy Process in Comparative Perspective	43
Alasdair R. Young and Christilla Roederer-Rynning
4 An Institutional Anatomy and Five Policy Modes	67
Helen Wallace and Christine Reh

PART II Policies

5 The Single Market: Central to Brexit	109
Alasdair R. Young
6 Competition Policy: The Politics of Competence Expansion	130
Mark Thatcher
7 Economic and Monetary Union: An Enduring Experiment?	152
Dermot Hodson
8 The Common Agricultural Policy: The Fortress Challenged	182
Christilla Roederer-Rynning
9 The Budget: Who Gets What, When, and How?	208
Brigid Laffan and Johannes Lindner

10	Cohesion Policy: Doing More with Less	232
	John Bachtler and Carlos Mendez
11	Social Policy: Between Legal Integration and Politicization	254
	Dorte Sindbjerg Martinsen
12	Digital Policy-Making in the European Union: Building the New Economy of an Information Society	275
	Abraham L. Newman
13	Environmental Policy: Contending Dynamics of Policy Change	297
	Andrea Lenschow
14	Energy Policy: Sharp Challenges and Rising Ambitions	321
	David Buchan
15	Justice and Home Affairs: Exposing the Limits of Political Integration	343
	Sandra Lavenex
16	Trade Policy: Making Policy in Turbulent Times	363
	Alasdair R. Young
17	Foreign, Security, and Defence Policy: Civilian Power, Europe, and American Leadership	388
	Bastian Giegerich
18	International Development: A Distinct and Challenged Policy Domain	413
	Jan Orbie
19	Enlargement: Widening Membership, Transforming Would-be Members?	440
	Ulrich Sedelmeier
PART III Conclusions
20	The Stability of EU Policy-Making in a Turbulent World	471
	Mark A. Pollack, Christilla Roederer-Rynning, and Alasdair R. Young
	REFERENCES	495
	INDEX	565

DETAILED CONTENTS

PREFACE	xv
NEW TO THIS EDITION	xvi
LIST OF FIGURES	xvii
LIST OF BOXES	xviii
LIST OF TABLES	xx
ABBREVIATIONS AND ACRONYMS	xxii
LIST OF CONTRIBUTORS	xxxi
EDITORS' NOTE	xxxii

PART I Institutions, Process, and Analytical Approaches

1 An Overview	3
Introduction	4
Varieties of EU policy-making	7
A unique arena with familiar politics?	8
New strains on EU policy-making	9
Outline of the volume	11
2 Theorizing EU Policy-Making	13
Introduction	14
Theories of European integration	14
Neofunctionalism	15
Intergovernmentalism	16
Liberal intergovernmentalism	16
The 'new institutionalisms'	19
Constructivism	22
Postfunctionalism and politicization	25
Integration theory today	27
The EU as a political system	27
The vertical separation of powers: the EU as a federal system	29
The horizontal separation of powers	30
The governance approach: the EU as a polity	34
Governing without government	35
Modes of governance	35
The deliberative turn	36
Europeanization	37
A democratic deficit?	38
Conclusion	40

3	The EU Policy Process in Comparative Perspective	43
	Introduction	44
	A policy-cycle perspective	44
	Politicians, bureaucrats, and interest groups	45
	Policy makes politics	47
	Agenda-setting: deciding what to decide	49
	Policy formulation: what are the alternatives?	51
	Decision-making: choosing what (not) to do	52
	Executive politics: delegated decision-making	53
	Legislative politics or international negotiation?	55
	Implementation: national legislative and executive politics	59
	Judicial politics: adjudicating disputes	61
	Policy feedback: completing and shaping the policy cycle	62
	Conclusion	63
4	An Institutional Anatomy and Five Policy Modes	67
	The institutional design of the European Union	68
	The European Commission	68
	The Council of the European Union	75
	The European Council	82
	The European Parliament	83
	The Court of Justice of the European Union	87
	The European Central Bank	89
	National institutions	90
	One Community method or several policy modes?	91
	The classical Community method	92
	The EU regulatory mode	96
	The EU distributional mode	98
	Policy coordination	100
	Intensive transgovernmentalism	102
	PART II Policies
5	The Single Market: Central to Brexit	109
	Introduction	110
	Establishing the single market	110
	Harmonization and its increasing frustration	111
	The emerging reform agenda	112
	The single market programme	113
	The Single European Act	114
	Squaring the theoretical circle	115
	Subsequent institutional reform	116
	The politics of policy-making in the SM	116
	Negative integration	117
	Positive integration	118
	A greater focus on services	121

The regulatory policy mode	121
Policy linkages	124
Brexit and the single market	125
The single market: causing and complicating Brexit	125
Brexit: revealing the value of the single market?	126
Conclusion	128
6 Competition Policy: The Politics of Competence Expansion	130
Introduction: the importance of competition in and for the EU	131
The development of EU general competition powers	132
Powers to prevent restrictive practices	132
Abuse of a dominant position	135
Mergers and acquisitions	135
State aid	136
State monopolies	137
Competition policy in practice: the single market, industrial policy, and European integration	137
Competition versus industrial policy	139
Continuing industrial policy	142
Analysing the development of EU competition policy	144
Current debates about competition policy	147
Competition, industrial policy, and member-state discretion	148
Enforcement, transparency, and legitimacy	149
Digital tech giants	149
Conclusion	149
7 Economic and Monetary Union: An Enduring Experiment?	152
Introduction	153
The origins of economic and monetary union	154
From the launch of the single currency to the euro crisis	158
From the euro crisis to Covid-19	165
Variations on the Community method	167
The ECB and European Banking Union	167
The European Stability Mechanism	169
EMU and policy coordination	170
The Stability and Growth Pact and the Broad Economic Policy Guidelines	170
The six-pack and the fiscal compact	171
The European semester, the two-pack, and the troika	173
EMU and intensive transgovernmentalism	174
The Eurogroup	175
The Euro summit	175
External representation of the euro area	176
The euro-outs	177
Conclusion	179

8	The Common Agricultural Policy: The Fortress Challenged	182
	Introduction	183
	Modernizing agriculture: forging a European consensus	184
	Implausible origins	184
	Modernization domesticated	186
	Enlargements and the CAP consensus	187
	Managing 'Fortress CAP': two variants of the Community method	188
	Hegemonic variant	188
	Competitive variant	190
	Greening the CAP: the search for a new European consensus	196
	The global context: between economic competition and climate action	196
	The growing relevance of the regulatory mode in the CAP	199
	How to green the CAP—towards more national flexibility	201
	Conclusion	205
9	The Budget: Who Gets What, When, and How?	208
	Introduction	209
	A thumbnail sketch of the budget	210
	The major players and hybrid processes	213
	Budgetary politics over time	216
	Phase 1: the dominance of budgetary battles	216
	Phase 2: ordered budgetary decision-making	218
	Budget management	228
	Conclusion	229
10	Cohesion Policy: Doing More with Less	232
	Introduction	233
	From minor fund to major instrument of policy and governance	234
	Origins and the landmark reform	234
	Budgetary consolidation and preparing for enlargement	234
	The strategic and performance turns	235
	Policy modes: the core distributional mode and emergent modes	238
	The distributional mode as a shifting system of multi-level governance	242
	Controversies and challenges	248
	Policy controversy over effectiveness and added value	248
	Changing political context	249
	Conclusion	251
11	Social Policy: Between Legal Integration and Politicization	254
	Introduction	255
	The puzzle of EU social policy: integration despite contestation	256
	The institutionalization of EU social policy	258
	The first phase: progress and constraints under the Community method	258
	The second phase: new beginnings under the regulatory mode	261

Third phase: regulatory progress, the coordination mode, and political backlash	263
Fourth phase: social policy-making in a politicized environment	265
Cross-border welfare as a lightning rod for politicization	269
Conclusion	272
12 Digital Policy-Making in the European Union: Building the New Economy of an Information Society	275
Introduction	276
The digital double movement	278
Building a digital single market	279
Embedding the digital economy	286
Modes of governance	289
Global consequences	291
Conclusions	295
13 Environmental Policy: Contending Dynamics of Policy Change	297
Introduction	298
History: towards a fourth phase of environmental regulation?	298
Key players	303
The European Commission: from fragmented entrepreneur to normal bureaucracy?	303
The Council of the European Union: cross-cutting cleavages	305
The European Parliament: still the environmental champion?	307
The Court of Justice of the European Union: from policy enabling to enforcement	308
Environmental interest groups: more than just a lobby	309
Regulatory policy-making at the crossroads	312
The EU as an international actor	316
Conclusion	318
14 Energy Policy: Sharp Challenges and Rising Ambitions	321
Introduction	322
Scope and history of EU energy policy	323
Internal energy market	325
Issues and interests	325
Competition policy to the rescue	327
Energy Security	331
Issues and interests	332
Driven by events	334
Climate change	336
Issues and interests	337
External ambition and internal compromise	337
Conclusion	341

15	Justice and Home Affairs: Exposing the Limits of Political Integration	343
	Introduction	344
	The institutionalization of justice and home affairs cooperation	345
	From intergovernmental cooperation to contested communitarization	345
	Politicization, Brexit, and the crisis of the common asylum and Schengen systems	348
	Key actors	350
	Organization and capacities of EU institutions	350
	The proliferation of semi-autonomous agencies and databases	352
	The flow of policy	355
	Asylum and immigration policy	355
	Police and judicial cooperation	358
	The challenge of implementation	361
	Conclusion	361
16	Trade Policy: Making Policy in Turbulent Times	363
	Introduction	364
	The importance of trade policy to the EU	364
	The customs union as a constitutive policy choice	364
	EU as power in and through trade	365
	Making trade policy	366
	Trade negotiations: the Community method with elements of the regulatory mode	366
	Trade legislation: the regulatory mode to the fore	370
	Commercial instruments: still the Community method	371
	The evolution of EU trade policy	372
	European trade policy in turbulent times	373
	Stalled Doha Round, and an emphasis on bilateral agreements	374
	Politicization of trade policy	376
	The transatlantic challenge	378
	The implications of Brexit for EU trade policy	380
	Trade policy: complicating Brexit	381
	Trade policy's contribution to Brexit: the desire for an independent trade policy	381
	Trade policy's complication of Brexit: dealing with customs controls	382
	Conclusion	384
17	Foreign, Security, and Defence Policy: Civilian Power, Europe, and American Leadership	388
	Introduction	389
	From European political cooperation to common foreign policy	391
	The end of the cold war and the launch of CFSP	391
	From CFSP to CSDP: the UK and France as leaders	394

Coordination in Brussels, but decisions in national capitals	396
The Treaty of Lisbon as a turning point?	399
From Iraq to the European Security Strategy	400
EU security policy in a deteriorating security environment	401
Operations and missions: CSDP in the real world	405
Conclusion	410
18 International Development: A Distinct and Challenged Policy Domain	413
Introduction	414
Key issues and debates	414
Importance	414
Objectives	418
Budgets	420
Competences	422
Uniqueness	423
Budgetary power outside the EU	424
Historical legacy	425
The key role of trade	426
Policy-making	430
Donor role	431
Coordination role	434
Conclusion	437
19 Enlargement: Widening Membership, Transforming Would-be Members?	440
Introduction	441
Rules, procedures, and policy	444
Association agreements	446
Europe agreements	447
Stabilization and association agreements	448
Association agreements and the 'Eastern Partnership'	448
Pre-accession alignment	450
Accession partnerships and European partnerships	450
European Economic Area Agreement	452
Accession	453
Commission opinions	453
Accession negotiations	454
Enlargement as a tool of foreign policy and external governance	456
Evolution of accession conditionality	456
Accession conditionality and effective external governance	459
Conditionality: no longer the EU's most powerful foreign policy tool?	460
Post-accession compliance	463
Conclusion	466

PART III Conclusions

20	The Stability of EU Policy-Making in a Turbulent World	471
	Introduction	472
	Trends in EU policy-making	472
	Experimentation and hybridization of policy modes	473
	‘Brussels’ and national governance	476
	Interacting European and global governance	477
	Challenges to EU policy-making	480
	Politicization: greater salience, variegated impact	482
	Brexit: a big change with marginal policy impact	486
	Geopolitical shifts: muddling through a more uncertain world	489
	The Covid-19 pandemic and its aftermath	491
	Conclusions	493
	REFERENCES	495
	INDEX	565