

Table of Contents

Editors	v
Contributors	vii
Preface to the Third Edition	lix
List of Abbreviations	lxi
List of Figures	lxxiii
List of Tables	lxxv
CHAPTER 1
Introduction
Dirk Zetsche
	1
§1.01	Legislative History of the AIFMD
	2
[A]	Status Ex Ante AIFMD
	2
[B]	Expert Groups and Policy Options
	2
[C]	The Impact of the Crisis: Stakeholder Concerns and Leverage
	3
[D]	Depository Rules: Lehmann and Madoff
	4
[E]	The Political Process Leading to the AIFMD
	4
§1.02	Regulatory Technique
	6
[A]	Multi-level Regulation
	6
[B]	Supervisory Cooperation and ESMA Coordination
	8
[C]	Accompanying Legislation
	9
§1.03	Principal Objectives
	9
§1.04	Regulatory Tools
	11
[A]	Scope
	11
[1]	Hedge Funds
	12
[2]	Private Equity
	12
[3]	Real Estate and Infrastructure
	13

	[4] Special Funds (as Qualified Investor Funds)	13
	[5] Others	14
	[B] Investment Triangle	14
	[C] Manager Regulation	16
	[D] Risk Management	16
	[E] Cross-Border Dimension	16
§1.05	The AIFMD Within the European Directives on Financial Law	17
	[A] General Direction of European Financial Law	17
	[B] Asset Management Directives	18
	[C] The AIFMD as Pacesetter	18
	[D] The AIFMD Cross-Border Marketing Rules (XBDD and XBDR)	19
§1.06	Third-Country Passport and Private Placement	19
	[A] Implementation of the EU/EEA Passport	19
	[B] Termination of the National Placement Regime	20
	[C] Brexit	20
§1.07	AIFMD and Tax Reporting	21
§1.08	Outlook for the AIFMD II	21

PART I

Scope	23
-------	----

CHAPTER 2

Scope of the AIFMD

Dirk Zetzsche & Christina D. Preiner

§2.01	Introduction	25
§2.02	AIF Definition Pursuant to Article 4(1)(A) AIFMD	26
	[A] Undertaking for Collective Investment	26
	[1] Central Concept of European Law	26
	[2] Pooling	28
	[3] Third-Party Investment Management	29
	[a] Third-Party Versus Investors' Investment Management	29
	[b] In Particular: Joint Ventures	30
	[c] In Particular: Crowdfunding	31
	[B] Five Additional Criteria	32
	[1] Raising of Capital	32
	[a] 'Capital'	33
	[b] 'Raising' of Capital: Commercial Communication?	33
	[c] In Particular: Self-Used Investments	34
	[d] In Particular: Family Offices	34
	[e] In Particular: Other Pre-existing Groups	36
	[2] Number of Investors	37
	[3] Investment in Accordance with a Defined Investment Policy	37
	[4] For the Benefit of These Investors	39

	[5] No Authorization According to UCITSD	39
[C]	Ascertainment	40
	[1] Open-Ended and Closed-Ended Funds	40
	[2] Irrelevance of the Legal Form	42
	[3] Irrelevance of the AIFM's Legal Structure	42
	[4] Insignificance of the Sales and Distribution Channels	43
[D]	Sub-funds and Unit Classes	44
	[1] Sub-funds	44
	[2] Unit Classes	45
	[3] The Directive's Extended Interpretation	45
§2.03	Safe Harbour Based on Business Activity (Article 2(3) AIFMD)	46
[A]	Four Rationales for Excluding Activities	46
	[1] Holding Companies: Regulated Versus Non-regulated Business	46
	[2] Social Security Institutions	46
	[3] Pursuing the Public Interest	47
	[4] Alternative Regulation	47
[B]	In Particular: AIFM Versus Holding Companies	48
	[1] Definition of the Directive	48
	[2] Interpretation	49
	[3] Exercising Control Versus Passive Pursuit of Investor's Interests	51
	[4] Non-controlling Holdings	52
[C]	In Particular: Other Undertakings for Collective Investments	53
	[1] Venture Capital Funds and European Social Entrepreneurship Funds	54
	[2] European Long-Term Investment Funds	54
	[3] State Funds/Sovereign Wealth Funds	55
	[4] The Basket Character of AIFMD?	56
§2.04	Exclusion Based on Size: 'Small' AIFM (Article 3(2)-(4) AIFMD)	56
[A]	Calculation of the Threshold Value	57
[B]	Legislation Applicable to Small AIFMs	57
[C]	Additional National Requirements	58
§2.05	National Jurisdiction	59
[A]	Types of Funds	59
[B]	Legal Forms: Details	59
[C]	National Laws Versus European Passport	60
§2.06	Conclusion	61

CHAPTER 3

Interplay Between the AIFMD and the UCITSD

Ulf Klebeck & David Eckner

§3.01	EU Fund Industry under Regulatory Scrutiny	63
§3.02	Differences Between the AIFMD and the UCITSD	64
[A]	Demarcation Between AIFs and UCITS	64

	[B] Professional Versus Retail Investors: Tertium Non Datur?	66
	[C] Manager Versus Product Regulation	67
	[D] Third-Country Regulations	68
	[E] The AIFMD's Reliance on Level 2 and Level 3	69
§3.03	Interfaces and Overlaps of the AIFMD and the UCITSD	69
	[A] Manager Regulation	69
	[B] 'Cross-Sectoral' Activities of AIFMs and UCITS Management Companies	70
	[C] Delegation	72
§3.04	Impact on Fund Managers under the AIFMD and/or the UCITSD	73
	[A] The AIFM's Perspective: Should I Stay or Should I Go?	73
	[B] UCITS Wrapper as an Alternative?	75
	[C] Business as Usual for UCITS Management Companies?	75
§3.05	Conclusion	76

CHAPTER 4

AIFMD Versus MiFID/MiFIR: Similarities and Differences

Dirk Zetzsche & Thomas F. Marte

		77
§4.01	Introduction	77
§4.02	A Primer to MiFID	77
	[A] Significance and Scope of MiFID	77
	[B] Know Your Customer	78
	[C] Fitness and Properness	79
	[D] Adequate Organization	80
§4.03	Similarities	80
	[A] Manager Regulation	80
	[B] Licence for Individual Portfolio Management	81
	[C] Commitment to the Investors'/Clients' Best Interests	81
	[D] Remuneration	82
	[E] Prohibition of Letter-Box Entities/Shell Companies	83
	[F] Cross-Border Dimension	83
§4.04	Differences	84
	[A] Policy Objectives	84
	[B] Assets: Financial Instruments Versus Unlimited	85
	[C] Risk Management: Operating Condition Versus Core Activity	85
	[D] Rules on Distribution Versus Mandatory Disclosure	86
	[E] Authorization and Operating Conditions	86
	[1] Capital Requirements	86
	[2] Organizational Requirements	87
	[3] Individual Portfolio Management Versus Management of AIF	88
	[F] Product Regulation	89
	[G] Status of Investment Advisory Relationships	89
	[H] Safekeeping of Assets	90
	[I] Manager Liability	91

[J]	Transparency and Disclosure	92
§4.05	Conclusion	92

CHAPTER 5

ELTIFR Versus AIFMD

	Dirk Zetzsche &amp; Christina D. Preiner	95
§5.01	Objective of ELTIFR	95
§5.02	Eligible Assets (Articles 1, 9-13 ELTIFR)	96
	[A] QPC (Article 11 ELTIFR)	96
	[1] Undertaking	96
	[2] Neither CIU nor Financial Undertaking	97
	[3] Location of the QPC	98
	[4] Not Listed or Market Cap Below 500 Million	99
	[5] Legal Form of Investments	99
	[B] Real Assets (Article 10(e) ELTIFR)	100
	[1] Binding Text	100
	[2] Guidance from the Recitals and CIU Principles	101
	[3] Direct and Indirect Holdings	102
	[C] Certain Undertakings for Collective Investments (Article 10(d) ELTIFR)	103
	[D] Prohibited Investment Techniques (Article 9(2) ELTIFR)	103
	[E] Restricting Criteria	106
	[1] Long-Term Objective	106
	[2] Conflicted Investments	107
§5.03	Manager Regulation	108
	[A] Corresponding Application of AIFMD and ELTIFR	108
	[B] Internal ELTIF-AIFM	108
	[C] Liability for Infringements of ELTIFR (Article 7(3) ELTIFR)	108
§5.04	The ELTIF's Depository (Article 29 AIFMD)	109
§5.05	Product Regulation	110
	[A] Authorization Requirement	110
	[B] Portfolio Composition	110
	[1] Seventy Percent Eligible Assets	110
	[2] Diversification, Concentration and Borrowing	111
	[a] Diversification (Articles 13, 14 ELTIFR)	111
	[b] Concentration (Article 15 ELTIFR)	111
	[c] Borrowing (Article 16 ELTIFR)	112
	[3] Quota Calculation and Rectification	113
	[a] Scope	113
	[b] Capital Definition	113
	[c] Treatment of Groups (Article 13(7) ELTIFR)	114
	[d] Timing/Staging Rules (Article 17 ELTIFR)	114
	[e] Rectification of Infringements	115
	[C] The ELTIF's Share/Unit	117
	[1] Limited Redemptions (Article 18 ELTIFR)	117

	[a] Closed-Ended Fund or Qualified Open-Ended Fund	117
	[b] Managing Liquidity	117
	[c] Redemption in Cash or in Kind	118
	[2] Furthering the Transferability of ELTIF Units (Article 19 ELTIFR)	119
	[3] Capital Measures	119
	[4] Dissolution	120
	[5] Distribution of Proceeds and Capital During the ELTIF's Life (Article 22 ELTIFR)	120
	[D] Cross-Border Notification	121
§5.06	Sales Regulation	122
	[A] UCITSD/AIFMD-Style Protection	122
	[1] Investor Information	122
	[2] Subscription and Payment Agent (Article 26 ELTIFR)	122
	[3] AIFM: MiFID Side Service Licence (Article 30(2) ELTIFR)	123
	[B] MiFID Style Requirements on the AIFM Only	123
	[1] AIFM: Product Governance (Article 27(1) and (2) ELTIFR)	123
	[2] AIFM: Mandatory Product Governance Information for Distributors (Article 27(3) ELTIFR)	123
	[3] AIFM: Suitability Test (Article 28(1) ELTIFR)	124
	[C] MiFID Style Requirements in AIFM and Distributors	124
	[D] ELTIF Cap at 10% of Retail Portfolio (Article 30(3) ELTIFR)	124
§5.07	Third-Country Relations	125
§5.08	Assessing ELTIFR	125
	[A] Brand Building	125
	[B] Remaining Member States' Discretion	126
	[C] Tax as Investment Barrier	126
	[D] Disrespecting Market Efficiency	126
	[E] ELTIFR Reform?	127
§5.09	The ELTIFR's Impact on Competition	127

CHAPTER 6

Sustainable Finance, Responsible Investments, the AIFMD and SRD II

Dirk Zetsche & Christina D. Preiner

		129
§6.01	Introduction	129
§6.02	Fundamentals of SF	130
	[A] Defining CSR, RI and SF	131
	[B] RI Categories in the Investment Fund Context	132
	[C] RI, Profitability and Economics	133
	[1] Profit Perspective	134
	[2] Cost Perspective	135
§6.03	From CSR to SF in European Financial Law	136
	[A] CSR in European Law	136
	[1] The First Stage: 1993 Onwards	137
	[2] The Second Stage: 2000 Onwards	137

	[3] The Third Stage: 2010 Onwards	138
	[4] The Fourth Stage: 2016 Onwards	139
[B]	Impact on Financial Law	141
	[1] The Rise of SRI	141
	[2] The Impact of the Financial Crisis	142
	[3] From Voluntary to Mandatory: SF as a New Policy Objective	144
$6.04	RI Approach in the AIFMD	146
	[A] Institutional RI	146
	[1] Remuneration	147
	[2] Conflicts of Interest	149
	[B] Investment RI	150
	[1] Mandatory Disclosure	150
	[2] The “Best Interest” Requirement	152
	[3] Limits on Leverage	154
	[C] Integrated RI	154
	[1] Asset-Stripping Rules and Acquisition of Non-listed Firms	154
	[2] Voting/Exercise of Shareholder Rights	155
$6.05	Practical Implications	156
	[A] RI as a Guideline for Construing/Interpreting the AIFMD	156
	[B] Indirect Effect	156
	[C] Impact on Fund Governance of the AIFMD and AIFs	156
	[1] Minimum Sustainable Finance Obligation	156
	[2] Opting-in to RI: AIF Investment Policy Refers to Sustainable Finance Principles	157
	[D] Impact on Corporate Governance of Portfolio Company	157
$6.06	Toward a New Policy Objective	159

CHAPTER 7

How to “Fix” the Venture Capital Model? Regulation Versus Disruption

	Mark Fenwick &amp; Erik P.M. Vermeulen	161
$7.01	Introduction	161
$7.02	The VC Model: Challenges and Solutions	163
$7.03	Disruptive VC Models	169
	[A] Visibility	172
	[B] Collaboration	174
	[C] Constant Iteration and Learning	175
$7.04	Conclusion	178

PART II

	Regulation of the AIFM	179
--	------------------------	-----

CHAPTER 8

Appointment, Authorization and Organization of the AIFM

	Dirk Zetsche &amp; David Eckner	181
--	--	-----

§8.01	Introduction	181
§8.02	Core and Non-core Activities of the AIFM	182
	[A] AIF Management as Core Activity	182
	[1] Portfolio and Risk Management as ‘Managing an AIF’	182
	[2] Portfolio Management	183
	[3] Risk Management	185
	[B] Non-core Activities	185
	[1] Non-core Services under Annex I No. 2 AIFMD	185
	[a] Administration	185
	[b] Marketing	189
	[c] Asset-Related Services	191
	[d] Separate Authorization?	191
	[2] UCITS Management under Article 6(2) AIFMD	192
	[3] Discretionary Portfolio Management under Article 6(4) AIFMD	194
	[a] Individual Portfolio Management	194
	[b] Investment Advice, Safekeeping and Technical Administration, Transmission of Orders	196
	[c] Special Authorization	196
	[4] Relationship to Other European Passports	197
§8.03	Delineation of ‘AIF’ and ‘AIFM’: Internal and External AIFMs	198
	[A] External Legal Person	199
	[B] Appointed as Manager by the Governing Body	200
	[C] Issues	201
	[1] Inability of Internal Management or Natural Persons to Be AIFMs	201
	[2] Illegitimate Appointment Resolution	202
	[3] Governing Body and Trust Companies as Directors	202
	[4] Management Entity Behind Limited Partnership	203
§8.04	Conditions for Authorization	203
	[A] Asset Management as Licensed Activity (Article 7(1) AIFMD)	203
	[B] Limits on Authorization by Type of Investment Strategy (Article 8(4) AIFMD)	204
	[C] Authorization Conditions (Articles 8 and 9 AIFMD)	205
	[D] Authorization Procedure	205
	[1] Jurisdiction	205
	[2] Application Materials	206
	[3] Review	207
	[4] Changes to Authorization (Article 10 AIFMD)	207
	[a] Notice Requirement	207
	[b] Delegation	208
	[5] Withdrawal of Authorization (Article 11 AIFMD)	209
§8.05	Operating Conditions	209
	[A] Overview	210
	[1] Detailed Level 2 Regulation	210

	[2] Principle of Proportionality	211
[B]	General Conduct of Business Principles	215
	[1] Duty of Loyalty	215
	[a] Best Interest Rule and Best Execution	216
	[b] Conflicts of Interest Organization	216
	[c] Fair Dealing	217
	[2] Duty of Care	218
	[a] Adequate Organization	218
	[b] Compliance	219
	[c] Equal Treatment of Investors	220
[C]	Valuation and NAV Calculation	221
	[1] AIFM's Obligation and Liability	221
	[2] Procedural Requirements	221
	[a] Appropriate and Consistent Procedures	221
	[b] Ensuring Compliance	222
	[c] Ensuring the Frequency of Asset Valuation and NAV Calculation	222
	[d] Disclosure	223
	[3] Substantive Requirements on Valuation	223
	[4] External Valuation	224
	[a] External Valuation Versus Rules on Delegation (Article 20 AIFMD)	225
	[b] Qualification of the External Valuer (Article 19(5) AIFMD)	226
	[c] Prohibition of Sub-delegation (Article 19(6) AIFMD)	227
	[d] Notification of External Valuation (Article 19(7) AIFMD)	227
	[e] Liability for External Valuation (Article 19(10) AIFMD)	227
	[5] Issues	228
	[a] Valuation in Decentralized Settings	228
	[b] Valuation with External Management	228
	[c] Cross-Border Dimension	229
§8.06	Conclusion	229

CHAPTER 9

Delegation

Thibaut Partsch

§9.01	Introduction	231
§9.02	Scope	232
	[A] Sources	232
	[B] Delegation of "Core" Investment Management Functions ("Portfolio and Risk Management")	233
	[C] Delegation of Other Management Functions	234
	[1] ESMA/2011/379	234

	[2] AIFMD (Commission) Regulation	236
	[a] Exclusion of “Supporting Tasks”	236
	[b] “Annex I.2. Services” Fully in Scope?	236
	[D] Advisory Services	237
	[E] Back Delegation	238
§9.03	General Operating Conditions	238
	[A] Justification and Due Diligence	239
	[1] Justification	239
	[2] Due Diligence	240
	[B] The Delegate	240
	[1] Human Resources and Technical Infrastructure	241
	[2] Fitness	241
	[3] Properness (Good Repute)	241
	[4] Impact of Authorization	242
	[C] General Features of the Delegation	242
	[1] Supervision	243
	[2] Policies and Compliance with AIFMD Rules	244
	[3] Continuity of the Service	245
	[4] Contractual Rights	245
	[5] Letter-Box Entity	246
	[6] Regulatory Supervision	249
	[7] Prohibition of Double Delegation?	249
§9.04	Delegating Core Functions	250
	[A] Delegation to Regulated Entities	250
	[B] Delegation to a Third-Country Entity	252
	[1] Authorization/Registration	252
	[2] Cooperation of Competent Authorities	253
	[C] No Delegation to the Depositary	254
	[D] No Delegation to Any “Conflicted Entity”	255
§9.05	Sub-delegation and Further Sub-delegation	257
	[A] Consent of the AIFM	257
	[B] Notification to AIFM’s Competent Authority	257
§9.06	Conclusion	257

CHAPTER 10

Robo-Advisors under AIFMD

Isabelle Riassetto

		259
§10.01	Introduction	259
	[A] Benefits and Limitations of Robo-Advisors	260
	[B] Robo-Advisors and Portfolio Management	261
	[C] Robo-Advisors and Investment Funds	262
	[D] Regulatory Perspectives	262
	[E] Compliance with AIFMD	263
§10.02	Anatomy of Robo-Advisors in the Light of the AIFMD	264
	[A] Degree of Automation	264

	[B] Contractual Relationships	265
§10.03	Authorization	265
	[A] Authorization Versus Registration	265
	[B] Authorization Conditions	266
	[C] Authorization Perimeter	266
§10.04	Operating Conditions	267
	[A] Organizational Rules	267
	[B] Conduct of Business Rules	269
	[1] Duty of Loyalty	269
	[2] Duty of Care	270
	[3] Fair Treatment of Investors	271
§10.05	Functions	271
	[A] ‘Core’ Functions	271
	[1] Portfolio Management	271
	[2] Risk Management	272
	[B] ‘Non-core’ Functions	273
	[1] Fund Administration	273
	[2] Marketing Versus Fund Distribution	274
	[3] Asset Relating Services	275
	[C] Delegation of Functions	275
§10.06	Transparency Requirements	276
	[A] General Reporting and Disclosure Requirements	276
	[B] Investors Information	276
§10.07	Supervision	277
	[A] Competent Authority	277
	[B] Depositary	278
§10.08	Liability	278
	[A] EU Initiatives	279
	[B] Liability Regimes and Alternative Liability Schemes	280
	[1] Fault-Based Liability	280
	[2] Strict Liability	281
	[3] Robo-Advisor as a Person-Like	281
	[4] Mandatory Insurance or Compensation Scheme	282
§10.09	Conclusion	282

CHAPTER 11

AIFM’s Governance and Remuneration Committees

Paulo Câmara 283

§11.01 Introduction 283

§11.02 Testing the Need for Legal Reform: The Expansion of Scope of EU
Corporate Governance Interventions 286

[A] Political Rather than Economic Reasons 286

[B] Legal Transplant Rather than Granular Approach 287

§11.03 Testing the Scope of the AIFMD 289

[A] Distinct Issues in One Box 289

	[B] Proportionality as a Solution	290
§11.04	Testing the Regulatory Tone of the AIFMD	290
	[A] Dominance of Black-Letter Duties	290
	[B] Voluntary Codes?	290
	[1] Conflicts of Interest	291
	[2] Organizational Requirements	291
§11.05	Testing the AIFMD's Adequacy in Relation to the Overall Corporate Governance System: The Case of the Remuneration Committee	292
	[A] European Rules on Remuneration Committees	292
	[B] Basic Features of the Remuneration Committee	293
	[1] One-Tier Board of Directors	294
	[2] Two-Tier Board/Supervisory Board Committees	294
	[3] Committees Established by the General Meeting of Shareholders	294
	[C] Remuneration Committee in the Financial Sector and Directive 2010/76/EU (CRD III)	295
	[D] Remuneration Committees under the AIFMD	297
§11.06	Conclusions: Proportionality as a Governance Tool	298

CHAPTER 12

Liquidity Management and Side Pockets

Ulf Klebeck & David Eckner

		301
§12.01	Liquidity as Investor Protection	301
§12.02	Side Pockets: A Suitable tool for Liquidity Management?	302
	[A] Economic Objectives of Side Pockets	302
	[B] Legal Concept and Structures of Side Pockets	303
	[C] Alternative Measures and Instruments for Liquidity Management	304
§12.03	Side Pockets under Regulatory Scrutiny	305
	[A] IOSCO's Principles on Suspension of Redemptions	305
	[B] U.S.	306
	[C] Switzerland	307
§12.04	Side Pockets under AIFMD: A New EU Framework?	308
	[A] Liquidity Management via "Special Arrangements"	308
	[B] Admissibility of Side Pockets under the Laws of EU Member States	310
	[C] Cross-Border Marketing Issues of AIFs with Side Pockets	312
§12.05	ESMA Guidelines on Liquidity Stress Testing	313
§12.06	Conclusion	313

CHAPTER 13

Risk Management

Dirk Zetzsche & Michael Hanke

		315
§13.01	Introduction	315
§13.02	Understanding Risk Management	316

	[A]	Three Dimensions of Risk Management	316
		[1] Control	317
		[2] Setting Boundaries for Optimizing Business Activity	318
		[3] Governance	319
	[B]	Legal Categorization of Risk Management	320
		[1] Risk Management Triangle	320
		[a] Risk Organization (Institutional Risk Management)	320
		[b] Risk Procedures (Operational Risk Management)	321
		[c] Risk Measurement (Technical Risk Management)	321
		[2] Delineation	322
		[a] Compliance	322
		[b] Internal Control System	324
		[c] Internal Audit	325
§13.03		Risk Management as the AIFM's Core Activity	327
	[A]	Risk Management as Regulated Activity	327
	[B]	Delegation of Risk Management	329
		[1] Risk Management Process and Regulatory Scope	329
		[2] Delegation to Authorized Entity	332
		[a] Entities Authorized under Article 20(1)(c) AIFMD and Article 78 AIFMD (Commission) Regulation	332
		[b] Asset Management as Inclusive Expression	333
		[c] Delegation of Risk Management to MiFID Firms with Respect to Non-financial Instruments?	334
		[3] Delegation to Non-supervised Entity	335
		[a] Special Permission Requirement	335
		[b] Extent of the Special Permission	335
	[C]	The "Risk Management AIFM"	335
§13.04		Risk Management Principles	336
	[A]	Risk Management Organization	336
		[1] Functional and Hierarchical Separation	336
		[a] General Organizational Requirements	336
		[b] Principle of Proportionality: Safeguards in Case of Incompatibility	337
		[2] Risk Management Policy	338
		[a] Minimum Requirements	339
		[b] Review Period/Measurement Frequency	340
		[c] Risk Limits	342
		[d] Quantitative or Qualitative Limits?	342
		[3] Permanent Risk Management Function/Chief Risk Officer (CRO)	345
		[a] Organizational Requirements	345
		[b] CRO Versus Governing Body/Senior Management	346
		[c] Delegation	347
		[4] Risk Management and Remuneration	347
		[a] General Requirements	347

	[b] Interaction with Risk Management	348
	[c] Brief Overview on Potential Issues	349
[B]	Risk Management Procedures	349
	[1] Risk Transparency and Disclosure	350
	[2] Due Diligence	351
	[3] Liquidity Management Procedures	351
	[a] General Requirements	352
	[b] Interaction of Liquidity and Risk Management	353
	[4] Stress Testing as a Procedural Element	354
[C]	Risk Measurement	355
	[1] Proportionate Risk Measurement	355
	[a] Principle-Based Regulation	355
	[b] Lack of Consensus, Standardization and Certainty	357
	[2] Data Management and Processing	357
	[a] The Issue	357
	[b] Operational Risk	358
	[3] Risk Measurement Techniques in Alternative Strategies	359
	[a] Position-Based Risk System Versus Return-Based Risk System	359
	[b] Advanced Measurement Techniques Versus Basic Strategy-Related Risk Measurement	360
	[c] Scope and Limits of Risk Measurement in Alternative Strategies	362
	[4] Risk Measurement and the Need for Prudential/Protective Regulation	363
§13.05	Key Risks in the AIFM's Risk Management	364
	[A] Risks Highlighted by AIFMD	365
	[B] Financial Risks	367
	[1] Investment Risk	367
	[a] Initial Investment Risk	368
	[b] Ongoing Investment Risk	369
	[2] Leverage Risks	369
	[3] Liquidity Risk	369
	[4] NAV Instability Risk/Valuation Risk	371
	[5] Risk of Overreliance on External Ratings	371
	[C] Operational Risks	372
	[1] Conflict of Interest Risks	373
	[2] Legal/Regulatory Risks	373
§13.06	Conclusions	374

CHAPTER 14

Securitizations and SPVs under STSR and AIFMD

Dirk Zetsche & Sebastiaan N. Hooghiemstra 375

§14.01 Introduction 375

§14.02 Scope of the STSR 376

	[A] Securitization	376
	[1] Dependent upon Performance of Exposures to Financial Assets	377
	[2] Subordinated Tranches	377
	[3] Exclusion of Schemes Related to Physical Assets	378
	[B] Sponsor	378
	[C] Institutional Investors	379
	[D] Dealing with Out-of-Scope Securitizations	379
§14.03	AIFMD Versus STSR	380
	[A] Two Definitions of Securitizations	380
	[B] The EC's Formal Approach: Debt Versus Ownership Interests	381
	[C] Practice of Member States' Supervisory Authorities	382
	[D] Critique	382
	[E] The Three-Feature Test: A Substance over Form Approach	384
	[1] First Element: Credit Institution or Investment Firm as Sponsor	384
	[2] Second Element: No Tranching	385
	[3] Third Element: Discretionary Management	385
§14.04	General STSR Framework	386
	[A] Credit-Granting Process of the Originator or Original Lender	386
	[1] EU Credit Institutions and EU Investment Firms	387
	[2] EU Originators and Original Lenders	387
	[a] Criteria for Credit-Granting	387
	[b] 'Fully Supported' ABCP Transaction	388
	[3] Non-EU Originators and Original Lenders	388
	[B] Risk Retention on the Part of the Securitizing Entity	388
	[1] Operational Requirements and Calculation	389
	[2] Most Optimal Alignment of Interests	390
	[3] Private Sector Securitizations	390
	[C] Organizational Prerequisites	391
	[1] Monitoring Performance of Securitization Position/Underlying Exposures	391
	[2] Stress Testing	392
	[3] (Internal/External) Reporting and Record-Keeping Requirements	392
	[4] Delegation	393
	[D] Assessment of the Risk Associated with the Relevant Securitization	394
	[E] Transparency Requirements	394
	[1] Ongoing Transparency Obligations (Investor Disclosure/Reporting)	395
	[2] Ad-Hoc Disclosure (Investor Disclosure/Reporting)	395
	[3] Securitization Repository	396
§14.05	Conclusion	396

CHAPTER 15

Investor Information and Reporting

Dirk Zetzsche, David Eckner & Miko Yeboah-Smith 397

§15.01	Introduction	397
§15.02	Transparency Requirements of AIFMD	398
[A]	Initial Investor Information	398
[1]	Disclosure Requirements	398
[2]	Format and Publication, Accessibility and Frequency	401
[a]	Format	401
[b]	Privacy Versus Publication	402
[c]	Accessibility	402
[d]	Frequency	403
[3]	Initial Investor Information in Product Distribution Chains	404
[4]	Opt-Out Solution?	405
[5]	Additional Initial Information under Other AIFMD Provisions	406
[B]	Periodic Disclosure to Investors	407
[1]	Disclosure Requirements for AIFs	407
[a]	Annual Report	407
[b]	Additional Periodic and Event-Related Disclosure	409
[2]	Format and Accessibility	410
[a]	Format	410
[b]	Accessibility	410
[3]	Interaction with the European Directives on Company Law	411
[a]	Scope of the European Company Law Directives	411
[b]	Applying the European Directives on Company Law on AIFMD	412
[4]	Applicable Accounting Standards: National GAAP Versus IFRS	412
[5]	Disclosure Requirements for AIFMs	413
[C]	Reporting to Competent Authorities	414
[1]	Reporting Requirements	414
[2]	Format, Reporting Measures and Frequency	415
[a]	Format	415
[b]	Reporting Measures	416
[c]	Frequency	417
[d]	Reporting on Leveraged AIFs	418
[3]	Justification and Legal Limits of Reporting	419
[4]	Investor Information Versus Reporting Requirements	420
[D]	Acquisition-Related Disclosure	421
[1]	Additional Reporting to Competent Authorities	421
[2]	Additional Periodic Disclosure	422
[3]	Additional Disclosure to AIF's Investors	422
§15.03	AIFMD Versus EU-ProspectusR and TPD	423

[A]	Prospectus Obligation	423
[1]	The Definition of “Securities”	423
[a]	Conflict of Disclosure Requirements Between EU-ProspectusR and AIFMD	423
[b]	AIF: “Securities Definition” or Extra-Provision in EU-ProspectusR?	424
[2]	“The Public” Versus “Professional Investors”: Always Out of the Scope of EU-ProspectusR?	425
[a]	Definition of “Professional Investor”	425
[b]	Registration Requirement?	425
[3]	Initial Investor Information Versus Prospectus under the EU-ProspectusR	426
[B]	Continuing Reporting Requirements under TPD	427
§15.04	AIFMD Versus ELTIFR and PRIIPsR	428
[A]	Prospectus and KIID Obligation	428
[1]	KIID Obligation under PRIIPsR	428
[2]	Additional Prospectus Obligations under ELTIFR	429
[B]	Periodical Reporting Requirements	430
§15.05	AIFMD and Tax Reporting	431
§15.06	Conclusion	432
	Annex: Degree of Information in AIFMD’s, EU-ProspectusR’s and ELTIFR’s Initial Investor Information/Prospectuses	434

PART III

	Regulation of the Depositary	439
--	------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER 16

Depositary Regulation

	Sebastiaan N. Hooghiemstra	441
--	-----------------------------------	-----

§16.01	Introduction	441
--------	--------------	-----

§16.02	The Scope of the AIFMD with Regard to Depositaries	442
--------	--	-----

[A]	The Obligation to Appoint a Depositary under the AIFMD	442
-----	--	-----

[1]	General Rule	442
-----	--------------	-----

[2]	Exemptions from the Depositary Obligation	443
-----	---	-----

[3]	Depositary-Lite Regime	444
-----	------------------------	-----

[B]	Entities Eligible as a Depositary and Its Organizational Requirements	445
-----	--	-----

[1]	Credit Institutions	445
-----	---------------------	-----

[2]	Investment Firms	446
-----	------------------	-----

[3]	Other Eligible Institutions	447
-----	-----------------------------	-----

[4]	Eligible Non-EEA Entities	449
-----	---------------------------	-----

[5]	Option for Private Equity Funds, Venture Capital Funds and Real Estate AIFs	449
-----	--	-----

[C]	The Location of the Depositary	450
-----	--------------------------------	-----

[1]	Location of the Depositary for EEA-AIFs	450
-----	---	-----

	[2]	Location of the Depositary for TC-AIFs	452
		[a] EEA-AIFMs	452
		[b] TC-AIFM	452
	[3]	A Quasi-Depositary Passport Regime for TC-AIFs	453
[D]		EEA Depositaries: General Requirements	453
	[1]	Duty of Loyalty	453
	[2]	Conflicts of Interest	454
[E]		Third-Country Depositaries	454
	[1]	Additional Requirements for Third-Country Depositaries	454
	[2]	The Third-Country Depositary and ‘Effective Prudential Regulation’	455
		[a] Effectively Enforced Prudential Regulation	455
		[b] ‘Supervision Equivalent’ to That Applicable under EEA Law	456
§16.03		The Depositary and Its Functions	457
	[A]	The Particulars of the Written Contract	457
		[1] Eligible Assets	458
		[2] Flow of Information	458
		[3] Escalation Procedure	459
		[4] Third Parties	459
		[5] Termination of the Contract	459
	[B]	Safekeeping	460
		[1] Financial Instruments That Should Be Held in Custody	460
		[2] Safekeeping Duties with Regard to Assets Held in Custody	461
		[3] ‘Other Assets’	463
		[4] Safekeeping Duties Regarding Ownership Verification and Record Keeping	464
		[5] Safekeeping Duties and Crypto-Assets	465
	[C]	Control	466
		[1] Oversight Duties: General Requirements	467
		[a] Ex Ante Verification	467
		[b] Ex Post Controls	467
		[2] Subscriptions/Redemptions	468
		[3] Valuation of Shares/Units	469
		[4] AIFM’s Instructions	470
		[5] The Timely Settlement of Transactions	471
		[6] AIF’s Income Distribution	471
		[7] Monitoring of the AIF’s Cash Flows	472
		[a] Cash Monitoring: General Requirements	473
		[b] Proper Monitoring of All AIF’s Cash Flows	474
§16.04		Delegation in the Depositary Chain	475
	[A]	Avoiding Requirements	475
	[B]	Objective Reason	476
	[C]	Due Diligence	476
		[1] Due Diligence upon Appointment of the Sub-custodian	477

[2]	Ongoing Monitoring Diligence Sub-custodian	478
[3]	Adequate Structures and Expertise	478
[4]	Effective Prudential Regulation	479
[5]	Segregation of Assets	479
[6]	Insolvency Protection AIF Assets	482
[6]	Re-hypothecation	483
[7]	General Obligations	483
[8]	Ongoing Monitoring and Periodic Review	483
§16.05	Conclusion	485

CHAPTER 17

The AIF Depository's Liability for Lost Assets

	Christophe Clerc &amp; David Eckner	487
§17.01	Introduction	487
§17.02	Depository's Obligation to Safe Keep and Return Entrusted Assets	488
[A]	Safekeeping Obligation	488
[B]	Obligation to Return Assets	490
§17.03	Delegation	491
[A]	Scope	491
[B]	Consequences of the Obligation to Return	492
§17.04	Depository's Liability for Lost Assets	494
[A]	Loss	494
[B]	AIFMD Exemptions	495
§17.05	Conclusions	496

CHAPTER 18

Depositories: Still a Bit of a Mess

	John R. Siena	497
§18.01	How Did We Get Here?	497
§18.02	Cross-Sector Coherence?: Other Developments Relevant to Depositories	500
[A]	The Giovannini Working Group	501
[B]	The Nucleus: Insolvency	504
§18.03	Imprecations and Implications	507
[A]	Increased Risks, Costs and Capital: CRD IV	507
[B]	The Level 2 Dialogue	509
§18.04	The Relevant Provisions of the AIFMD	509
[A]	Assets to Be Held in Custody Versus 'Other Assets'	510
[B]	Restitution of Lost Held-in-Custody Financial Instruments	513
[C]	Sub-custodians and Scope of 'Delegation'	514
[1]	Delegation and Collateral Held with Third Parties	517
[2]	Investor CSDs as 'Delegates'	518
[D]	Avoiding Liability?	520
[E]	Duties of Depository and Sub-custodians with Respect to Held-in-Custody Financial Instruments	521

	[F] Non-EU AIFs	522
	[G] Net Effect: The Depositary as Guarantor	524
§18.05	Developments Subsequent to the AIFMD (Commission) Regulation	526
	[A] The ESMA Segregation Consultation and Opinion	526
	[1] Segregation in Law and in Practice	526
	[2] The ESMA Segregation Consultation and Opinion	528
	[B] The 2018 Delegated Regulation	530
	[1] Reliance Model as Concern	531
	[2] Taking MiFID into Account	532
§18.06	A Special Concern: Collateral Damage	534
	[A] Background on Use of Collateral	535
	[B] Collateral under the Law	536
	[C] Implications of an Unresolved Inconsistency	538
§18.07	A Way Out?	540
	[A] Basic Concepts	540
	[B] Rules That Would Make Sense	541
	[C] Application to the AIFMD	543
§18.08	Conclusion	543

CHAPTER 19

(Prime) Brokerage

Dirk Zetzsche

		545
§19.01	Introduction	545
§19.02	A Primer on Prime Brokerage, Margin and Collateral	546
	[A] Derivatives and Margin	546
	[B] Initial Margin	547
	[C] Operating or Variation Margin	548
	[D] Assets to Be Provided as Collateral	548
	[E] Collateral in the Prime Broker's Insolvency	549
	[F] Defining Prime Broker Management	550
§19.03	Wide Scope of the AIFMD's Prime Broker Rules: All Brokers	551
§19.04	The Broker's Three Functions	552
	[A] Counterparty to AIFM	552
	[1] Scope	552
	[2] Conflicts of Interest Rules	553
	[3] AIFM in Charge of Prime Broker Management	553
	[4] Best Execution Rule	554
	[5] The Depositary's Oversight Role	555
	[B] Sub-depositary	556
	[1] Scope: Financial Instruments That Can Be Held in Custody	556
	[2] The Depositary's Obligations: The Three Asset "Buckets"	557
	[3] Injunctive, Not Performance-Related Right of Action	559
	[C] Prime Broker as Depositary?	560
	[D] The Resulting Situation	561

§19.05	Organizational Requirements	562
	[A] Risk Management	562
	[B] Compliance	563
	[C] Information Flow: Reporting and Disclosure	563
	[1] Depository	564
	[2] Investors	566
	[3] Competent Authorities	567
	[D] Prime Brokers Versus Delegation	567
	[1] Distinction Between Counterparty and Sub-depository	567
	[2] Delegation by AIFM?	568
	[3] AIFM: Prime Broker and Collateral Management as Asset Management?	568
	[E] Asset Segregation	569
§19.06	Analysis	569
	[A] Modified Hybrid/Depository Model	569
	[B] Entering into a Brokerage Agreement	570
	[1] Collateral Management at the Cross-Section of the AIFM's and the Depository's Obligations	570
	[2] Disagreement Between AIFM and Depository	571
	[C] Allocating Liability	571
	[1] Each Party for Its Obligations	572
	[2] Liability of the AIF?	573
	[D] Member States' Discretion to Impose Additional Requirements?	573
§19.07	Prime Broker Models under AIFMD	573
	[A] Sub-depository with or Without Indemnity Clause	574
	[B] Prime Only	574
	[C] Depository Prime	575
	[D] Prime Custody	575
	[E] Prime Depository	576
	[F] Multi-prime	576
	[G] Discharge Model	576
	[H] Depository Lite or Open-Architecture Model with TC-AIF	578
	[I] Master AIFM with Prime Brokers	579
§19.08	Conclusion	579

CHAPTER 20

The Rationale for a Depository Passport

	Christopher P. Buttigieg	581
§20.01	Introduction	581
§20.02	Advantages of a Depository Passport	582
	[A] Efficiency Gains	582
	[B] Cost Benefits	583
	[C] Financial Stability	583
§20.03	The Internal Market for Investment Funds	583
	[A] UCITS II Proposal	584

	[B] UCITS III	586
	[C] Lamfalussy Report	586
	[D] AIFMD and UCITS V	587
§20.04	Stakeholder Views	588
	[A] Green Paper (2005)	588
	[B] Expert Group (2006)	589
	[C] UCITS V (2009)	590
	[D] UCITS V Consultations 2010/2012	590
§20.05	A Proposed Solution to the Supervision Conundrum	592
	[A] Reflexive Governance	592
	[B] Supervisory Colleges?	593
	[C] ECB Supervision	593
§20.06	Conclusion	594
PART IV
	Investment Strategies	595
CHAPTER 21
Hedge Funds and Systemic Risk Reporting
	Frank Dornseifer	597
§21.01	Introduction and Overview	597
§21.02	The EU Hedge Fund Market	603
§21.03	Definition and Methods for Calculation of Leverage	604
	[A] AIFMD	604
	[B] AIFMD (Commission) Regulation 231/2013 and ESMA Advice 2011/379	605
	[1] Gross Method (Article 7 AIFMD (Commission) Regulation)	607
	[2] Commitment Method (Article 8 AIFMD (Commission) Regulation)	609
	[C] ESMA Q&A Related to Calculation of Leverage	610
§21.04	Specific Requirements of Leveraged AIFs Within the Authorization Procedure	612
	[A] Information Requirements	612
	[B] Internal Leverage Limit	612
§21.05	Reporting Obligations with Regard to Leverage	617
	[A] AIFMD	617
	[B] AIFMD (Commission) Regulation and ESMA/2011/379	618
§21.06	Use of Information by Competent Authorities, Supervisory Cooperation and Limits to Leverage	620
	[A] AIFMD	620
	[1] Assessment of Information	620
	[2] Information Exchange	620
	[3] Limits to Leverage by Competent Authorities	621
	[B] AIFMD (Commission) Regulation and ESMA/2011/379	623

	[C] Potential Countermeasures	624
	[D] Disclosure	624
§21.07	Conclusion	625
CHAPTER 22
Digital Asset Funds
	Dirk Zetzsche, John Lore &amp; Roberta Consiglio	627
§22.01	Introduction	627
§22.02	Definitions	627
§22.03	Market Overview	630
	[A] Crypto Hedge Funds	631
	[1] Governance	631
	[2] Remuneration and Performance Fees	632
	[3] Top Five CHF's	632
	[B] CCEs and Wallets	632
	[C] Cryptocurrency Index Funds and ETFs	633
§22.04	Fund Types	634
	[A] UCITS	634
	[B] AIFs	635
§22.05	Legal Issues	636
	[A] Safekeeping and Custody	636
	[B] Valuation	639
	[C] Qualification of Service Providers	640
	[D] Tech Entrepreneurs Versus Depositaries	640
§22.06	Summary	641
CHAPTER 23
AIFMD and Private Equity
	Roderik Boogaard &amp; Jérôme Mullmaier	643
§23.01	Introduction	643
§23.02	Typical Private Equity Structure	645
	[A] Tax-Driven Variety	645
	[B] Basic Features	645
	[C] Industry Divergence	646
§23.03	Impact of the AIFMD on Private Equity Funds	646
	[A] Registration as AIFM/Scope and Calculation of Assets under Management (AuM)	646
	[B] Marketing of Private Equity Funds	649
	[C] Identifying the AIFM: Delegation	650
	[D] Depositary	652
	[E] Transparency Requirements	653
	[F] Asset Stripping Provisions	654
	[G] Risk Management Functions	654
	[H] Remuneration Guidelines and Disclosure	654
§23.04	Conclusion	655

CHAPTER 24

The AIFM's Duties upon the Acquisition of Non-listed Firms

Christophe Clerc & David Eckner

	657
§24.01 Scope, Definitions and General Principles	657
[A] Exempt Companies	657
[1] Real Estate Special Purpose Vehicles	658
[2] SMEs	658
[B] Definition of Control	660
[C] Confidentiality Obligations	661
[D] Gold-Plating	662
§24.02 Disclosure	662
[A] Requirements When Certain Thresholds Are Crossed	662
[B] Requirements upon Acquisition of Control	663
§24.03 Asset Stripping	665
[A] Original Views	665
[B] Adopted Rules	666
[C] Policy Rationale	666
§24.04 Conclusion	667

CHAPTER 25

Art Investment Vehicles

David Eckner & Randall James Willette

	669
§25.01 Introduction	669
§25.02 Asset Class-Related and Operational Environment	670
[A] Art and the Private Equity Fund Model	670
[B] Active Management of an Art Portfolio	671
[C] Art Fund Structure, Process and Management	672
§25.03 Investor Concerns and Impact of Regulation	673
[A] AIFMD Scope	673
[B] AIFMD-Compliant Art Fund Managers	676
§25.04 Current Art Investment Vehicle Trends	677
[A] Family Offices	677
[B] Managed Art Accounts	678
§25.05 Conclusion	679

CHAPTER 26

Infrastructure Investments

Frank Dornseifer, Dirk Zetzsche & Miko Yeboah-Smith

	681
§26.01 Introduction	681
§26.02 Categories	682
[A] Economic Versus Social	682
[B] Equity Versus Debt	683
[C] Risk and Return	684
§26.03 Infrastructure as a Risk Management Tool	685
§26.04 Market Overview	686

§26.05	Set-Up of Infrastructure AIFs	690
	[A] Closed-Ended and Open-Ended AIFs	690
	[B] Professional or Retail AIFs	691
	[C] Fund Vehicles	691
	[D] Note on Taxes	692
§26.06	Outlook	692

CHAPTER 27

The AIFMD and (Dutch) Real Estate Funds

	Charles Destrée	695
§27.01	Introduction	695
§27.02	Typical Structure of a Real Estate Fund	696
§27.03	AIFM Authorization	697
	[A] Licence Versus Registration	697
	[B] Licensing Requirements for RE-AIFM	697
	[C] Implementation in the Netherlands: Split Supervision by the DNB and the AFM	698
§27.04	Depository and Custodian	699
§27.05	Leverage	700
	[A] AIFMD Rules	700
	[B] Implementation in the Netherlands: Leverage Monitoring by the DNB	702
§27.06	Valuation	703
	[A] Revaluation under AIFMD	703
	[B] External Valuer	703
	[C] Liability in Connection with a Valuation	704
	[D] Supervision	704
§27.07	Financial Implications for Real Estate Funds	705
§27.08	Conclusion	706

CHAPTER 28

Loan-Originating (Debt) Funds

	Sebastiaan N. Hooghiemstra &amp; Dirk Zetzsche	707
§28.01	Introduction	707
§28.02	Loan Funds as Alternative Finance: Loan-Originating Funds Versus Loan-Participating Funds	709
§28.03	Banking Law Restrictions for Loan-Originating Funds	709
§28.04	Loan-Originating Funds Versus Banks	710
	[A] Investor Protection Versus Depositor Protection	710
	[1] Depositor Protection	710
	[2] Investor Protection	711
	[B] Systemic Risk	711
	[1] Substitutability	712
	[2] Size	712
	[3] Interconnectedness	712

	[C] Conclusion	713
§28.05	The Fragmented Loan-Originating Fund Framework in Europe	713
	[A] The European Legal Framework for Loan-Originating Funds	713
	[1] UCITSD	714
	[2] ELTIFR	714
	[3] EuVECAR/EuSEFR	715
	[B] National Level: A Fragmented Regulatory Landscape	716
	[1] ‘Manager Regulation’ Versus ‘Product Regulation Approach’	716
	[2] Intermediary Regulation: AIFMs	717
	[a] Authorized Versus Sub-threshold AIFMs	717
	[b] Organizational Requirements for AIFMs	718
	[3] Product Regulation	719
	[a] Authorized Versus Registered AIFs	719
	[b] Qualifying Investors	719
	[c] Leverage	719
	[d] Portfolio Composition and Anti-concentration Rules	720
	[e] Open-Ended Versus Closed-Ended	721
	[4] Types of Investors	721
	[5] Types of Borrowers	721
	[6] Investors’ Disclosure and Reporting Obligations	722
§28.06	Towards a European Legal Framework for Loan-Originating Funds	722
	[A] Authorized Versus Sub-threshold AIFMs	722
	[B] Organizational Requirements for AIFMs	722
	[C] Eligible Borrowers	723
	[D] Authorized Versus Registered AIFs Depending on Investors	723
	[E] Leverage	724
	[F] Open-Ended Versus Closed-Ended	724
	[G] Investor Disclosure/Reporting Obligations	725
§28.07	Conclusion	725

CHAPTER 29

Cooperation of AIFMs with Pension Vehicles

	Benedikt Weiser	727
§29.01	AIFM and Pension Funds as Asset Managers	727
	[A] Portfolio Management with Own Asset Expertise (Group-AIFM)	728
	[B] Portfolio Management for the Investor (Platform-AIFM)	729
	[C] Portfolio Management for Another Manager (‘White-Label Managers’)	729
§29.02	Conflict of Objectives	731
	[A] Regulatory Conflicts	731
	[B] Permanent Establishment	732
§29.03	Motivations for Engaging with an AIFM	733
	[A] Group-AIFM	733
	[B] Platform-AIFM	733

	[C] White-Label Managers	734
§29.04	Selection of the AIFM by a Pension Fund	734
	[A] Indicative Offers	735
	[B] Analysis of Indicative Offers	736
	[C] Recall Level	736
	[D] AIFM Agreement	736
§29.05	Dedicated Structuring	737
§29.06	Conclusion	738

CHAPTER 30

Money Market Funds Regulation

Sebastiaan N. Hooghiemstra

		741
§30.01	Introduction	741
§30.02	Scope of MMFR	742
	[A] UCITS or AIF	743
	[B] Short-Term Assets (Objective)	743
	[C] Returns in Line with Money Market Rates or Value Preservation	743
	[D] MMF Typology	744
	[1] Three Sub-categories of MMF	745
	[2] Short-Term and Standard MMFs	746
	[E] MMF Authorization	746
§30.03	Manager Regulation	746
	[A] Credit Quality of Money Market Instruments, Securitisations and ABCPs	746
	[B] MMF Liquidity Risk Management Measures	747
	[1] MMF Credit Ratings	747
	[2] 'Know Your Customer' Policy	748
	[3] Stress Testing	748
	[4] Specific Liquidity and Redemption Gates for Public Debt CNAV and LVNAV MMFs	749
	[C] Valuation of MMFs	750
	[1] Valuation of MMFs	750
	[a] Mark-to-Market and Mark-to-Model Accounting Method	750
	[b] Cost Amortization Method	750
	[2] Calculation of NAV per Unit/Share	751
	[D] External Support	751
§30.04	Depository Regulation	752
§30.05	MMF Product Regulation	752
	[A] Eligible Assets and Investment Restrictions	753
	[B] Provisions on Investment Policies	754
	[1] Diversification Rules	754
	[2] Concentration Rules	754
	[C] Portfolio Rules	755
	[1] Short-Term MMFs	755

	[2] Standard MMFs	755
§30.06	Transparency Requirements	756
	[A] Investor Disclosure	756
	[B] Reporting Requirements	756
§30.07	Conclusion	757

CHAPTER 31

Subscription Credit Lines under AIFMD

Ezechiel Havrenne

		759
§31.01	Introduction	759
§31.02	Different Perspectives on SCLs	760
	[A] AIFMs	760
	[B] Investors	761
	[C] Lenders	761
§31.03	Debt Financing and the Leverage Notion	762
	[A] SCLs Not Qualifying as Leverage	762
	[1] “Temporary in Nature” Notion	762
	[a] Luxembourg and German Regulators’ General Position	762
	[b] CSSF’s View on “Revolving Credit Facilities”	763
	[2] “Fully Covered by Contractual Capital Commitments from Investors in the AIF” Notion	763
	[B] Leverage and “Portfolio Financings”	764
	[C] Shareholder Loans and Leverage: FSMA Interpretation	764
§31.04	SCLs and the Entity Authorized to Act	765
	[A] SCLs and the “Portfolio Management” Notion	765
	[B] Applicable Legal Provisions to AIFMs and SCLs	767
	[C] SCLs and the Board’s Supervisory Role	767
	[1] Board’s Ex Ante Supervisory Function	768
	[2] Board’s Ex Post Supervisory Functions	769
	[D] SCLs and the Board’s Execution Role	769
	[E] SCLs and Umbrella AIFs	769
§31.05	Security Taken in the Framework of an SCL	770
	[A] SCLs and AIF Constitutive Documents	770
	[B] SCLs and Collateral Together with Drawdown Right	770
	[C] SCLs and Notification Obligation	770
	[D] SCLs and Drawdown Right	770
§31.06	Synthesis and Conclusion	771

PART V

The AIFMD’s Cross-Border Dimension

773

CHAPTER 32

The AIFMD's Cross-Border Dimension in Light of the Cross-Border Distribution Directive and Regulation

Dirk Zetzsche & Robin Veidt

	775
§32.01 Introduction	775
§32.02 European Passport	776
[A] Marketing or Management Passport	776
[B] Entities Entitled to Pre-marketing	777
[C] Direct Cross-Border Activity or Activity Through a Branch	777
[D] Split Supervision and Escalation to the ESMA	778
§32.03 Notification	778
§32.04 Requirements for Cross-Border Activity	779
[A] Pre-marketing	779
[B] Marketing	780
[1] Content of Marketing Materials	781
[2] Applicable Laws of Member States	781
[3] Minimum Facilities	782
[4] De-notification	782
[5] Split Supervision and Ex-ante Verification	782
[C] Branch Requirements	783
§32.05 Management, Pre-marketing and Marketing	783
[A] Management Versus Administration	783
[B] Pre-marketing as Defined by the XBDD	783
[C] Marketing of AIF Units	784
[1] Understanding Marketing: The Supervisory View	785
[2] EU Financial Law Perspective	787
[D] Marketing Versus Pre-marketing	788
[1] Direct Offering or Placement	789
[2] Indirect Offering or Placement	790
§32.06 Cross-Border Information Exchange in Tax Matters	792
§32.07 Conclusion	793

CHAPTER 33

The AIFMD's Third-Country Rules and the Equivalence Concept

Dirk Zetzsche & Robin Veidt

	795
§33.01 Introduction	795
§33.02 Defining EEA and Third-Country Entities	797
[A] The Location of the Manager	797
[1] Registered Office as a Basic Criterion	797
[2] The Member State of Reference as a Potential Solution?	799
[3] A Systems Approach to Defining TC-AIFMs	799
[a] Place of Effective Management	800
[b] The Real Seat Theory	800
[c] AIFMD Principles	801
[d] Principles of European Financial Law	802

	[e] The AIFM's Head Office	803
	[4] Defining the Core Investment Activities	803
[B]	The Location of the Fund	804
	[1] EC and Competent Authorities' View: The Registered Office	804
	[2] Reconsidering the Authorities' View on AIF Location	805
§33.03	National Placement Regime (NPR): A Two-Pillar System	806
	[A] General Requirements	807
	[B] The Two Third-Country Pillars	808
	[1] Pillar I: Cooperation Agreements on Information Exchange Between Supervisory Authorities	808
	[a] Parties	808
	[b] Contents	808
	[c] Limits on Information Exchange and Confidentiality	810
	[d] Impact of the GDPR	811
	[2] Pillar II: FATF Compliance	812
	[C] Marketing of AIF Units to Professional and Retail Investors	814
	[D] Additional Requirements by Member States	815
§33.04	The European Third-Country Passport: A Four-Pillar System	816
	[A] The Role Model: The European Passport for EEA Entities	817
	[B] The Four Regulatory Pillars	818
	[1] Pillar I: Cooperation Agreements on Information Exchange Between Regulatory Bodies	819
	[2] Pillar II: FATF Compliance	820
	[3] Pillar III: Tax Information Exchange Between States	821
	[a] Parties	821
	[b] Content	821
	[c] Limits	822
	[d] No Double Taxation Agreement	822
	[4] Pillar IV: Supervision by a Member State	823
	[a] Supervision of TC-AIFMs: The Member State of Reference	823
	[i] General MSR Authorization Requirements	823
	[ii] Determination of the MSR	824
	[iii] Procedures	824
	[iv] Changes	826
	[v] Who Will Benefit?	826
	[b] Supervision of TC-AIFs Marketed by EEA-AIFMs	827
[C]	Additional European Passport Requirements for TC-AIFMs	827
	[1] Marketing of AIF Units to Professional Investors	827
	[2] Appointment of a Legal Representative	828
	[3] Compliance with the AIFMD or Equivalent Third-Country Rules	828
	[a] The Equivalence Principle	829
	[b] The Future of Global Financial Regulation?	830

	[i]	Between Competition and Harmonization	831
	[ii]	Between Convergence and Diversity	832
	[c]	Equivalence and Risk Symmetry	832
	[d]	Equivalence in European Banking and Financial Law	833
	[D]	Cross-Border Management by TC-AIFMs in Detail	835
§33.05		Applicability of Third-Country Rules and Brexit	835
	[A]	The ESMA's Equivalence Assessments	836
	[B]	Critique	837
	[C]	The European Commission's Delegated Act	838
	[D]	XBDD and AIFMD II	838
§33.06		Conclusion	839
PART VI
		The AIFMD's Transposition	841
CHAPTER 34
		Regulation of AIFMs and AIFs in Germany
		Thomas Emde	843
§34.01		Market Overview	843
	[A]	Data	843
	[B]	Framework Prior to AIFMD	844
	[C]	Supervisory Perspective	845
§34.02		Scope and Organization: Definitions and Jurisdictional Specifics	845
	[A]	KAGB Framework	846
	[B]	Core Definitions	848
	[C]	Particularities	850
	[1]	Small AIFMs	850
	[2]	MiFID Services	851
	[3]	Semi-professional Investors	851
	[4]	Retail AIF	852
§34.03		Regulation of Management Companies and Depositories	853
	[A]	Authorization	853
	[B]	Depository	854
§34.04		Product Regulation	855
	[A]	Retail AIFs	855
	[1]	Open-Ended Retail AIFs	856
	[2]	Closed-Ended AIF	856
	[B]	Special-AIFs	856
§34.05		Regulation of Promotion, Distribution and Marketing of AIFs	857
	[A]	Definition of Marketing	857
	[B]	Marketing Measures	858
	[C]	Marketing of Domestic AIF, EU AIF and Non-EU AIF	858
	[1]	Retail Investors	859
	[2]	(Semi-)Professional Investors	859

	[a] Incoming Scenario	859
	[b] Outgoing Scenario	860
§34.06	Conclusion and Outlook	860
CHAPTER 35
Regulation of AIFMs and AIFs in France
	Isabelle Riassetto	863
§35.01	Introduction	863
	[A] Legal Framework for French Investment Funds	863
	[B] Implementing the AIFMD	864
	[C] Terminology	864
	[D] Market Overview	865
§35.02	AIFMs	867
	[A] Status	867
	[1] Prior to the Implementation of the AIFMD	867
	[2] Since the Implementation of the AIFMD	868
	[B] Creation, Organization and Functioning	870
§35.03	Depository	871
§35.04	Products	872
	[A] AIFs by Nature	873
	[1] AIFs Open to Non-professional Investors	874
	[2] AIFs Open to Professional Investors	876
	[a] Types of AIFs	876
	[b] Notion of Professional Investors	877
	[3] Employee Investment Undertakings	878
	[4] Securitization Vehicles	878
	[B] “Other AIFs”	879
	[C] AIFs in the French Taxonomy of Collective Investments	879
	[1] Collective Investments (Placements Collectifs—PC)	880
	[2] Collective Investment Undertakings (Organismes de placement collectif—OPC)	880
§35.05	Marketing	881
	[A] Definition of Marketing	881
	[B] Marketing of AIFs to Retail Investors in France	883
	[C] Transparency Requirements	883

CHAPTER 36

Regulation of AIFMs and AIFs in the Netherlands

	Sebastiaan N. Hooghiemstra	885
§36.01	Introduction	885
§36.02	The Dutch AIFMD Legislation and Other Regulatory Sources	886
§36.03	The Scope of the AIFMD under Dutch Law: The AIF-Definition	886
§36.04	Intermediary Regulation	887
	[A] AIFMs	887
	[1] Full-AIFMs Versus ‘Third-Party AIFMs’	887

	[2] Ancillary MiFID II Investment Management Services	888
	[3] Sub-threshold (Small) AIFMs	889
[B]	Depositories	890
	[1] Continuation of the Pre-AIFMD ‘Depository’ Regime: The ‘Legal Title Entity’	890
	[2] PE Depository	891
§36.05	Legal Forms of AIFs in the Netherlands (Product Regulation)	892
	[A] Corporate Entities ( Beleggingsmaatschappij )	892
	[1] Companies (NV or BV)	892
	[2] Cooperative (Coöperatie)	892
	[B] Non-corporate Entities ( Beleggingsfonds )	893
	[1] Limited Partnership (Commanditaire Vennootschap, CV)	893
	[2] Fund for Joint Account (Fonds voor gemene rekening, FGR)	893
§36.06	Marketing Regulation	894
	[A] Registration/Authorization (Retail) AIFs	894
	[B] Investor Qualification	894
	[C] Investor Information	895
§36.07	Private Placement	895
	[A] TC-AIFs Managed by an (EEA-)AIFM (Article 36 AIFMD)	895
	[B] AIFs Managed by a Non-EEA AIFM (Article 42 AIFMD)	896
	[C] Cross-Border Management of Dutch AIFs by a Non-EEA AIFM (Article 42 AIFMD)	896
	[D] Absence Level Playing Field: AIFs Managed by a Small EEA-AIFMs	897
§36.08	Conclusion	897

CHAPTER 37

Regulation of AIFMs and AIFs in Luxembourg

Thibaut Partsch

		899
§37.01	General Considerations	899
§37.02	Legal Framework	900
§37.03	Modifications of the Management Company Regime	901
§37.04	Modernization of the AIF Regulation	903
	[A] SIFs	903
	[B] SICARs	904
	[C] Part II UCIs	904
	[D] RAIFs	904
§37.05	Practical Issues	904
	[A] Scope of CSSF’s Approval	905
	[B] Delegation and Substance	905
	[C] Policies Review	906
	[D] Cross-Border Asset Management	906
	[E] Marketing Rules	907

[1]	Marketing in the EEA of EEA AIFs (Including Luxembourg AIFs) by Luxembourg Authorized AIFMs	907
[2]	Marketing in Luxembourg of Non-EEA AIFs by EEA AIFMs	907
[3]	Marketing in Luxembourg of AIFs by Non-EEA AIFMs	908
[4]	Private Placement	908
§37.06	Conclusion	909

CHAPTER 38

Regulation of AIFMs and AIFs in Ireland

Blanaid Clarke & Mark White 911

§38.01 Method of Implementation of the AIFMD 912

§38.02 Product (and Sales) Regulation 912

    [A] Legal Forms 912

    [B] Eligible Investors 914

    [C] QIAIFs 914

    [D] Additional Rules for RIAIFs 915

§38.03 Manager Regulation 916

    [A] Capital Requirements 916

    [B] Licensed Activities 916

    [C] Organizational Requirements 917

    [D] Key Executives and AIFM Governance 917

§38.04 Details on Sub-threshold/De Minimis AIFM under Irish Law 919

§38.05 Depository Regulation 919

    [A] Depository for Real Assets 919

    [B] Depository for RIAIF and QIAIF 920

§38.06 NPPR 920

§38.07 The Impact of Brexit on Delegation of Portfolio Management Functions 922

§38.08 Conclusion 923

PART VII

The AIFMD as Part of EU Asset Management Law 925

CHAPTER 39

Joint Principles of European Asset Management Law: Towards

Cross-Sectoral Consistency

Dirk Zetzsche 927

§39.01 The Joint Principles of European Asset Management 927

§39.02 Evidence from the AIFMD 928

    [A] Scope 928

    [B] Manager Regulation 929

        [1] Licensing Requirements 929

        [2] Business Organization 929

        [3] Risk Management 930

[4]	Securitization	930
[C]	Depository Regulation	931
[D]	Disclosure	931
[E]	Supervision	932
[F]	Cross-Border Dimension	932
[1]	European Passport	932
[2]	Third-Country Rules	933
§39.03	Policy Objectives	933
§39.04	Towards Asset Management Centres	934
Bibliography		937
Table of Legislation		963
Index		975