

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements

Introduction

Revival After The First World War: Rebuild, Remember, Repair, Reform

Luc Verpoest, Leen Engelen, Rajesh Heynicks, Jan Schmidt, Pieter Uyttenhove & Pieter Verstraete

10

PART ONE — REBUILD

33

Catastrophe and Reconstruction in Western Europe: The Urban Aftermath of the First World War

Pierre Purseigle

36

Reflections on Leuven as Martyred City and the Realignment of Propinquity

Richard Plunz

54

Making Good Farmers by Making Better Farms: Farmstead Architecture and Social Engineering in Belgium After the Great War

Dries Claey's & Yves Segers

64

“C'est la beauté de l'ensemble qu'il faut viser.” Notes on Changing Heritage Values of Belgian Post-World War I Reconstruction Townscapes

Maarten Liefvooghe

86

Rebuilding, Recovery, Reconceptualization: Modern architecture and the First World War

Volker M. Welter

106

PART TWO — REMEMBER

123

Reclaiming the Ordinary: Civilians Face the Post-war World

Tammy M. Proctor

126

Expressing Grief and Gratitude in an Unsettled Time Temporary First World War Memorials in Belgium

Leen Engelen & Marjan Sterckx

140

Remembering the War on the British Stage: From Resistance to Reconstruction
Helen E. M. Brooks	164
A War to Learn From: Commemorative Practices in Belgian Schools After World War I
Kaat Wils	178
PART THREE — REPAIR	197
High Expectations and Silenced Realities: The Re-education of Belgian Disabled Soldiers of the Great War, 1914–1921
Pieter Verstraete and Marisa De Picker	200
Back to work: Riccardo Galeazzi's Work for the Mutilated Veterans of the Great War, Between German Model and Italian Approach
Simonetta Polenghi	218
Competition over Care: The Campaign for a New Medical Campus at the University of Leuven in the 1920s
Joris Vandendriessche	238
PART FOUR — REFORM	253
An Argentine Witness of the Occupation and Reconstruction of Belgium: The Writings of Roberto J. Payró (1918-1922)
María Inés Tato	256
The New Post-war Order from the Perspective of the Spanish Struggle for Regeneration (1918-1923)
Carolina García Sanz	268
The Act of Giving: Political Instability and the Reform(ation) of Humanitarian Responses to Violence in Portugal in the Aftermath of the First World War
Ana Paula Pires	282
Reconstruction, Reform and Peace in Europe after the First World War
John Horne	296
Bibliography	317
List of Contributors	347