

Contents

JUTTA ERNST and BRIGITTE JOHANNA GLASER – Introduction	7
--	---

New Theoretical Approaches to the Pacific

ROB WILSON – Becoming Oceania: Ecopoetics and the Planetary Pacific Rim, Or ‘Walking on water wasn’t built in a day’	23
--	----

Geographical and Historical Contexts

WERNER KREISEL – Current Problems in the Pacific Island World: The Contribution of Geography with Special Focus on German-Language Research	43
---	----

OTTO HEIM – Beyond the Rim? Redrawing Boundaries in Pacific Theatre	63
---	----

City of Glass

GLENN DEER – Pacific Spectacles: Vancouver and the Social Production of the “View Imperative”	81
---	----

SUSAN INGRAM – Vancouver Matters: Softening the Glass of Eco-Metropolitanism on the Post-Pacific Rim	97
--	----

The Reel Pacific

KARIN BEELER – Representing the Pacific: Adaptation in Ang Lee’s Film Life of Pi	111
---	-----

STANKOMIR NICIEJA – Beyond the East-West Dichotomy: Miss Kicki and Ghosted – A Case Study in Contemporary Taiwanese Cinema	125
--	-----

STAN BEELER – Cascadia in Film and Television: Bioregionalism and Its Media Reflection	133
JUSTYNA PORAY-WYBRANOWSKA – Regional Histories, Transnational Concerns: Mapping Cultural Topography through Guillermo del Toro’s Pacific Rim	149
 The Documentary Pacific
KIRSTEN TWELBECK – Rites of Renewal: Jack London’s Transpacific Journeys	169
JEFFREY GEIGER – Cinematic Gestures: Flows and Disruptions on the Yankee Voyage , 1936-1938	191
 Island Societies and Globality
THOMAS SCHWARZ – Samoa’s ‘Affective Value’: Rhetorical Strategies in German Pacificism	217
NICOLE POPPENHAGEN – “Claiming the Pacific”: Family Negotiations and (Trans)Pacific Histories in Pam Chun’s The Money Dragon	231
IRIS-AYA LAEMMERHIRT – “We Will Never Be Americans!” Hip-Hop and Hawaiian Resistance	249
ANGELA KÖLLING – From Samoa to Terra A: Navigating Academic Fractures (and writing what is more or less unintentionally left out)	263
Contributors	277