

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
1 Introduction: Danger, Protection, and Gender Ideology in Courtship Novels	1
2 Establishing the Traditional Courtship Novel in the Eighteenth Century: Haywood, Richardson, and Burney	16
3 Intensifying Tradition: Gothic Courtship Novels of Walpole and Radcliffe	50
4 Enriching and Mocking Tradition: Ironic Variations in Austen's Courtship Novels	64
5 Flawed Heroes and Rescuing Heroines: Victorian Challenges and Adherence to Tradition	111
6 Combatants, Soul Mates, and Risky Ventures: Modernist Deconstructions of Courtship Novel Danger in the Late Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Centuries	157
7 Reflections on Continuity, Change, and Contemporary Trends in Courtship Fiction	212
Index	225