

CONTENTS

Preface	1
Introduction	7
1. The Harmony of the Work	13
a) Gyburc as an integrating factor	14
b) Gyburc and the unity of the spiritual thought	24
c) Willehalm as an integrating factor	35
d) Vivianz as an integrating factor	41
e) The relationship between the two battles	48
2. The Compression of the Narrative	53
a) Simultaneity of action	54
b) The viewing of events from a distance	63
c) Interpolated action	69
d) The drawing together of events and the maintenance of suspense	72
e) Recapitulation of events	87
f) Anticipation of events	96
g) Wolfram's treatment of the past	102
3. The Texture of the Narrative	109
a) The use of contrast	110
b) The economy of the narrative and Wolfram's use of understatement	121
c) The use of parallels	126
d) The function of details within the narrative	132
e) The role of direct speech in the work	140
f) The occurrence of imagery in Wolfram's narrative	154

4. The Significance of the Setting	169
a) Settings in place and the function of movement	170
b) Settings in time	182
c) The function of sound and colour within Wolfram's descriptions of setting	188
5. The Emergence of Individuals	199
6. Narrative Art in Wolfram's Willehalm and the end of the work	225
Notes	243
Bibliography	263