

Contents

Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	ix

Introduction

A Perspective on Urban Sociology. R. E. PAHL	3
Approaches to the Subject	6
1. The Statistical Description of Large Populations	6
(a) Market Research and Problem Solving	7
(b) Testing Quantitative Indices	7
2. (a) Sociographic Descriptions	8
(b) The Sociology of Specific Milieux	9
The Socio-ecological System	10
Trends in Urban Sociology	20
1. Recent Urban Sociology in the U.S.A.	20
2. The Study of Urbanization	26
(a) The Demographic Approach	26
(b) The Return to Sociological Reporting and Analysis	29
Historical and Comparative Approaches to Urbanism	36
1. (a) Historical	36
(b) Comparative	38
Note	40
Other References	40

Part I. The Nature of Industrial Urbanism in Britain

Urban Sociology in Great Britain. RUTH GLASS	47
The Popularity of the Neighbourhood Community Idea. N. DENNIS	74

Part II. Responses to Urbanism

Urbanism and Suburbanism as Ways of Life. H. J. GANS	95
Myths of American Suburbia. B. BERGER	119
The Pattern of Neighbouring Relations in Dortmund-Nordstadt. E. PFEIL	136
Community and Association in a London Housing Estate. RUTH DURANT	159
Urban Ward Associations in Japan. H. NAKAMURA	186

Part III. Urban Structure and Social Structure

The Sociology of a Zone of Transition. J. A. REX	211
The Development of Prague's Ecological Structure. J. MUSIL	232

Part IV. Urbanization

The Rural-Urban Continuum. R. E. PAHL	263
Migrancy and the Study of Africans in Towns. P. MAYER	306
Biographical Notes	331