

Table of contents | Table des matières

Introduction à la collection	ix
Introduction to the series	xi
Preface	xiii
FIRST PART — COMPARATIVE SURVEY ANALYSIS: TRENDS, ISSUES. STRATEGIES
Introduction	3
I STEIN ROKKAN: Cross-national survey research: historical, analytical and substantive contexts	5
1 The sevenfold origins of the sample survey	5
2 The internationalization of the sample survey: opportunities and barriers	14
3 Styles of cross-national survey research: three case studies	20
4 The organization of comparative survey research: the conditions for cumulative development	43
II SIDNEY VERBA: The uses of survey research in the study of compar- ative politics: issues and strategies	56
1 Introduction	56
2 Three approaches: aggregate, configurational and survey analysis	57
3 The limitations of traditional survey research	60
4 Problems of comparability in multi-contextual research	62
5 Strategies of comparative research	79
Résumé français	107
	vii

TABLE OF CONTENTS

SECOND PART — COMPARATIVE SURVEY ANALYSIS: AN ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY

Introductory note	119
I Comparative survey analysis: general context	128
1 Social, cultural and political conditions for the utilization of survey techniques: barriers encountered in the spread of the new methodology	128
2 Availability and retrieval of information	132
II Organizational, methodological and theoretical issues in comparative survey research	143
1 Organization and procedures	143
2 The methodology of comparative survey analysis	147
3 The logic of comparative analysis: general discussions	149
III Substantive analyses by field	156
1 Conditions, roles, behaviours and attitudes throughout the life cycle	156
2 Personality characteristics and cultural orientations	181
3 Market conditions, levels of living, consumer behaviour and opinions	227
4 Stratification, mobility and class relationships	235
5 Occupations and work organizations	260
6 Social and cultural participation	269
7 Public affairs	274
8 Language and communication	290
9 Intercultural and international experiences	295

INDEXES

Countries compared	311
Populations covered	333
Authors	335