

Contents

---

List of Tables ix

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction

Communicating for Hegemony: The Making of the Publicity State in Canada 3

KIRSTEN KOZOLANKA

Part One

Political Communication: Media, State, Public

Introduction 25

1 Journalism, Corporate Media, and Democracy in the Digital Era 27

FREDERICK J. FLETCHER

2 In Whose Interest? Government Communication and Public Accountability 49

KIRSTEN KOZOLANKA

3 Publics without Politics: Surplus Publicity as Depoliticization 70

DARIN BARNEY

Part Two
Publicity and the State

Introduction 89

4 The War on Ideas: From Hayek to Harper 93

DONALD GUTSTEIN

5 The Politics of Public Opinion 112

PAUL NESBITT-LARKING

6 Taming the Untameable? Constraints and Limits on Government Advertising 132

JONATHAN ROSE

7 Political Funding Regimes and Political Communication 151

ROBERT MACDERMID

8 Domestic Brand Politics and the Modern Publicity State 172

RICHARD NIMIJEAN

9 Managing Information: Too Much Publicity, Not Enough
Public Disclosure 195

KEN RUBIN AND KIRSTEN KOZOLANKA

10 Tracing and Tracking Privacy Discourses: The Audience
as Commodity 215

LESLIE REGAN SHADE AND TAMARA SHEPHERD

Part Three
Beyond the Publicity State

Introduction 237

11 The Permanent Campaign Online: Platforms, Actors, and Issue-Objects 240

GREG ELMER, GANAELLE LANGLOIS, AND FENWICK MCKELVEY

12 The Role of Social Movements and Interest Groups 262

MIRIAM SMITH

13 Reality Check: The Counterpublicity of Alternative Media 281

HERBERT PIMLOTT

14 Publicity State or Democratic Media? Strategies for Change 304

KATHLEEN A. CROSS, ROBERT A. HACKETT AND STEVE ANDERSON

References 327

Contributors 375