

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction. Celebrating Canada: Commemorations,
Anniversaries, and National Symbols 3

RAYMOND B. BLAKE AND MATTHEW HAYDAY

- 1 National Symbols and Commemorations: Analysing the Loyalist Centennial and the Conventions nationales acadiennes in New Brunswick in the 1880s 26

DENIS BOURQUE, BONNIE HUSKINS, GREG MARQUIS, AND CHANTAL RICHARD

- 2 Emblemizing Canada in the Flag Debate of 1895 52

PETER PRICE

- 3 Children of a Common Mother: The Rise and Fall of the Anglo-American Peace Centenary 71

BRANDON DIMMEL

- 4 Competing Pasts, Multiple Identities: The Diamond Jubilee of Confederation and the Politics of Commemoration 97

ROBERT CUPIDO

- 5 Bilingualism and Biculturalism at the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation, 1927

ROBERT J. TALBOT 145

vi Contents

- 6 Canada's Centennial Experience 174
HELEN DAVIES
- 7 A "Labor of Love in a Community Spirit": The Cape Breton
Miners' Museum and the Remaking of Historical Consciousness 207
MEAGHAN ELIZABETH BEATON
- 8 Federal Funding, Local Priorities: Urban Planning and Ontario's Municipal Centennial Projects 237
CHRISTOPHER LOS
- 9 Alternative Identities: The 1967 Centennial and the Campaign for a Better Canada 259
TED COGAN
- 10 "Fit for Citizenship": Scouting and the Centennial Celebrations of 1967 290
JAMES TREPANIER
- 11 A Continental Centennial: Situating Expo 67 within the Canadian-American Relationship 313
ROBYN E. SCHWARZ
- 12 New Nationalism in the Cradle of Confederation:
Prince Edward Island's Centennial Decade 339
MATTHEW McRAE
- 13 Conclusion: The Importance of Commemorations and National Symbols 376
MATTHEW HAYDAY AND RAYMOND B. BLAKE
- Contributors* 381