

Contents

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction: Reading Space through Conflict 3
ROXANNE RIMSTEAD AND DOMENICO A. BENEVENTI

Part I: Contested Urban Spaces

- 1 Culture and Critique during Mega-Events: The 2010 Olympics
and the Right to the City 41
JEFF DERKSEN
- 2 The Ambivalence of Enclosed Spaces in Immigrant Fiction:
Between Refuge and Prison 61
AMARYLL CHANADY
- 3 Montréal Marginalities: Revisiting Boulevard Saint-Laurent 76
SHERRY SIMON
- 4 Heterotopia and Its Discontents: Exploring Spatial, Social, and Textual Liminality in Rawi Hage's Cockroach 88
RITA SAKR
- 5 "Laisser-aller": Homelessness and Contained Space in Kobo Abe's
The Box Man and Robert Majzels's City of Forgetting 107
SIMON HAREL

Part II: Counter-narratives and Spaces of the Nation/State

- 6 Unruly and Unremarked: Theatrical Spectatorship from Below
in Nineteenth-century Canada 127
ALAN FILEWOD
- 7 Women's Space in Postcolonial Perspective: France Théoret's
Une belle éducation and Assia Djebar's Nulle part dans la maison de mon père 148
MARY JEAN GREEN
- 8 For King and Country? War and Indigenous Masculinity 163
DEENA RYMHS
- 9 Reclaiming Indigenous Space through Testimonial Life Writing:
An Antane Kapeshe's Je suis une maudite Sauvagesse as Territorial Imperative 188
NATASHA DAGENAIS
- 10 Norman Bethune and the Contested Spaces of Canadian Public
Memory 212
CANDIDA RIFKIND

Part III: Culture from Below

- 11 Knowing the Urban Other: Notes on the Ethics and Epistemology of Slumming in Novels and Reportage 243
ROXANNE RIMSTEAD
- 12 "You Should Think about It, Think What It Means":
Working Girls in Canadian Women's Writing 261
PATRICIA DEMERS
- 13 Border-Crossings and Alternative Social Spaces in Gabrielle Roy's
Bonheur d'occasion / The Tin Flute 278
D.M.R. BENTLEY
- 14 Growing Up Poor and Female in Montréal, 1930–1960:
Women's Autobiographies as Counter-narratives 292
PATRICIA SMART

15 Tramping across the Nation: Homeless Embodiment in Canadian Literature 308

DOMENICO A. BENEVENTI

Afterword 327

List of Contributors 331

Index 337