

Contents

PREFACE

v

Part One: Legal and Social Theory

1. LAW, SOCIETY, AND MORAL EVOLUTION 3
  - Law as generic*, 4
  - Law as a realm of value*, 8
  - The ideal of legality*, 11
  - The morality of cooperation*, 18
  - The emergent polity*, 26
  - Incipient and inchoate law*, 32
2. THE QUEST FOR A LAW OF ASSOCIATIONS 35
  - Associations and freedom*, 37
  - The corporate entity*, 43
  - Contract and association*, 52
  - Power and property*, 63

Part Two: Social Foundations of Industrial Justice

3. MANAGEMENT AND GOVERNANCE 75
  - Rationality, legality, and managerial self-restraint*, 75
  - Human relations and the rule of law*, 95
  - Politics and human relations*, 114
4. COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AND LEGAL EVOLUTION 121
  - Toward the prerogative contract*, 122
  - The constitutive contract*, 137
  - Creative arbitration*, 154
  - From prerogative to policy*, 178
5. EMPLOYEE PERSPECTIVES ON INDUSTRIAL JUSTICE 183
  - Two meanings of fairness*, 185
  - The commitment to rules*, 193
  - The "regular employee"*, 196
  - The scope of authority*, 197
  - Occupational identity*, 200
  - Seniority rights*, 202

6. PUBLIC POLICY AND THE EMPLOYMENT RELATION 212

Regulation by indirection, 215

Voluntarism and passivity, 225

Private law public policy, 229

Part Three: The Emergent Law

7. PRIVATE GROUPS AND THE LAW OF GOVERNANCE 243

Public law and private law, 244

Due process as the law of governance, 250

The concept of private government, 259

INDEX

277