

Contents

Preface	ix
PART I THEORY AND METHODOLOGY OF PARTICIPANT OBSERVATION
1 Observation as a Method in Social Research	3
2 Prerequisites of Standardised Participant Observation	17
3 Two Basic Problems in Participant Observation	25
4 Techniques and Instruments of Standardised Participant Observation	39
5 Participant Observation compared with Other Methods	83
PART II PRACTICAL FIELD PROBLEMS
6 Participant Observation in the Youth Centre Study	93
7 Data Analysis	131
8 Validity and Prognostical Power of Observation and Interview Data	145
9 Problems of Observers' Roles in the Field	159
PART III INSTRUCTION AND SUPERVISION OF THE OBSERVERS
10 The Adequately Trained Observer as Methodological Component	181
11 Behaviour Training and Pretest	185
12 Supervision	203

APPENDICES

Criteria for Planning a Study by Participant Observation	213
Aids for Observation Strategy in Various Fields	217
Examples of Observation Schedules	221
Bibliography	239
Index	253