

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments .....	VII
Note on Editions, Spelling, and Transcriptions. ....	X
Introduction .....	1
From the Periphery to the Center?: Contemporary Crime Fiction in Turkey .....	2
Aims, Main Research Questions, and Methods. ....	6
Overview of the Chapters .....	10
CHAPTER 1
Theoretical and Methodological Premises. ....	15
1.1 Interconnections Between the Theoretical and Methodological Approaches and Aims of this Study. ....	15
1.2 Cultural Narratology: A Possible Modus Operandi for the Study of Turkish Literature. ....	20
1.3 A Note on Key Concepts. ....	25
CHAPTER 2
Positioning Ahmet Ümit in the Post-1980 Turkish Literary Field .....	40
2.1 Becoming the Author of Turkish Crime Fiction. ....	40
2.2 Ahmet Ümit's Narratives as a Cultural Way of Self- and Worldmaking until the Gezi Revolt .....	52
2.3 The End of His Ambivalent Politics of Resistance: The Aftermath of the Gezi Protests .....	60
Chapter Conclusion .....	65
CHAPTER 3
Beginnings: Reading Ümit's Early Works as Political Thrillers. ....	67
3.1 Narratives of Broken Masculinities and Popular Manifestations of Homo Secularis .....	71
3.2 Uncovering the Discontents of the (Deep) State: The Fog and the Night, The Scent of Snow, and The Marionette .....	79
3.3 Debunking the Genocide Taboo and the Military Myth: Patasana .....	100
Chapter Conclusion .....	110

CHAPTER 4

Transitions: Religion and History in Ümit’s Post-secular Novels ..... 112

4.1 Towards Post-secularism ..... 115

4.2 Religious Identities and Religiosities
in Beyoğlu Rhapsody and The Man who Spoke the Language of Jesus ..... 128

4.3 A Contemporary Sufi Tale: The Dervish Gate ..... 146

Chapter Conclusion ..... 162

CHAPTER 5

Transgressions: Alternative Histories in Ümit’s Istanbul Novels..... 165

5.1 Neo-Ottomanism vs. Ottomania: Reimagining the Ottoman Legacy ..... 169

5.2 Nostalgia for the Past: Istanbul Cosmopolitanism in A Memento for Istanbul.. 177

5.3 Postmodernist Contestation of National Historiography in To Kill a Sultan ... 192

Chapter Conclusion ..... 209

Conclusion ..... 211

References..... 223