

CONTENTS

Preface

Social Networking in South-Eastern Europe between the Fifteenth and the Nineteenth Centuries 1

I. SOCIAL NETWORKING AND THE FUNCTIONING OF STATES

Harald Heppner

The Inner Austrian Estates Networking in the 16th – 18th Centuries..... 7

Günhan Börekeçi

On the Power, Political Career and Patronage Networks of the Ottoman Royal Favourites (Late Sixteenth and Early Seventeenth Centuries)..... 17

Olga Katsiardî-Hering

Friendship, Communal and Official Links in the Social-Information Networks among the South-Eastern Merchants and Intellectuals (18th –19th Centuries) 63

II. CHARITY, CITIES AND BORDERS IN OTTOMAN SOCIAL NETWORKING CONTEXT

Amy Singer

Ottoman Charity: Some Thoughts on a Network Perspective 87

Hedda Reindl-Kiel

Networks in Kind: The Ottoman System of Gift Giving with Regards to Some Regions in the Balkans..... 101

Grigor Boykov

Alliances of Patrons and Clients:
Subduing the Unruly Ottoman Subjects in the Süleymanic Age 127

Michael Ursinus

The Tekke as a Focus of Social Networking:
The ‘Donations’ Lists in Şeyh Şemsüddin el-Halvetî’s Family Archive from Manastır (Bitola)..... 139

III. SOCIAL NETWORKING IN DIPLOMACY AND INTELLIGENCE

Ivan Parvev

“There is no place where espionage is not used”
Habsburg Spy Networking in the Ottoman Empire, 1689–1714 165

Maria Baramova

Social Networking en passant:

The Habsburg Great Embassy of Count Damian Hugo von
Virmont to Constantinople 1719–1720 179

Mihail Simov

Russian military Intelligence on the Balkans in the years between the Crimean War and the Eastern Crisis 189

Index 205