

Contents

PREFACE

xiii

I

THE RELATIONSHIPS OF ORGANIZED CRIME TO THE COMMUNITY SOCIAL STRUCTURE

1

The Importance of Public Awareness for Control of Organized Crime

Factors of Social Dynamics for Organized Crime Control

Cultural mores

Social acceptance and organized crime

Entropy in social control

The permissive society

Summary

Questions for Discussion

2
SYMPTOMS OF ORGANIZED CRIME		10
The need for exposés
Organized crime: myth or reality
The evolution of the criminal confederations
Nonconfederation policies of organized criminal groups
Elements and purpose of the confederation
Purpose of the organization
Factors influencing the presence of organized crime
Summary
Questions for Discussion
3
POLITICAL INFLUENCES IN ORGANIZED CRIME ENFORCEMENT		25
Politics and the Complex Factors for Organized Crime
The Evolution of the Political Leader
Organized crime funds spent to eliminate competition
Political Influences by the Party in Power
Summary
Questions for Discussion
4
ROLE OF THE LEGAL SYSTEM IN ORGANIZED CRIME CONTROL		36
The Defense Lawyer and His Criminal Client
The syndicate attorney
Internal discipline for the legal system
Providing Adequate Laws for Enforcement
Consistency in the law
State vs. local laws
Legal Agents and the Governmental Crime Commission
Summary
Questions for Discussion

5

ORGANIZATION AND MANAGEMENT PROBLEMS FOR ORGANIZED CRIME CONTROL

45

- Planning for Organizational Efficiency in Controlling Organized Crime
- Structuring the organization for organized crime control*
- The federal system for organized crime control*
- Regional systems*
- State plan for organized crime control*
- The Texas plan*
- Regional metropolitan and intelligence groups*
- Policy Development
- Policies for expense accounting*
- Special Administrative Programs for More Effective Control
of Organized Crime
- The structure of administrative subunits to insure lines of authority, responsibility and channels of communication*
- Supervisory responsibility in planning operations*
- Informal groups within the formal organization*
- Goals for the officer*
- Violator and officer relationship*
- Developing a philosophy for organized crime control*
- Summary
- Questions for Discussion

6

INTELLIGENCE GATHERING AND DISSEMINATION

67

- Ethical Considerations in Data Gathering
- General guidelines of the SEARCH committee*
- Security and privacy recommendations*
- Publicity and the release of information*
- Intelligence Records Organization
- The rationale for intelligence collection*
- Identifying functional concepts of a records system*
- Common Methods for Data Collection
- Criminal use of information technology*
- Counter measures by law enforcement agencies*
- Summary
- Questions for Discussion

7

METHODS FOR ORGANIZED CRIME ENFORCEMENT

89

Education

Model programs

Civic Action Groups and Crime Commissions

Civic action groups

Public understanding

Planned citizen involvement

Generate community initiative

Examine basic political systems

Involve organized business efforts

Expand the system to include civil sanctions

Encourage cooperation between criminal justice agencies

Citizen Groups Established Under the Framework of Government

The Pennsylvania Crime Commission

Punitive Enforcement

Role of the field officers

Identifying organized crime: how the patrol officer functions

The common physical crimes

Traditional syndicated crime

Summary

Questions for Discussion

Vice Crimes of an Organized Nature

104

8

GAMBLING

106

The moral issues of gambling

Gambling is a natural law because life itself is a gamble

Gambling is nonproductive and immoral

Gambling should be legalized and taxed to provide revenue for the governing functions

Gambling is justified for the financial support of churches and private charities

Gambling history

National history

Role of the state and gambling

Gambling and corruption

The function of the federal government

The betting syndicate

The handbook

The wire service

Bookmaking, Sporting Events, Gambling Devices such as Cards, Dice, and Slot Machines

The memory system

The employee bookie

The traveling bar "bookie"

The fixed spot

Fixed "phone spots"

The betting marker

Sporting events

Gambling devices such as cards and dice

Cards

Dice

Games played with dice

Poker dice

Barbudi or barbooth

Lotteries: The Numbers or Policy Games

Skimming

Bribery

Summary

Questions for Discussion

9

PROSTITUTION

132

History of Prostitution

Common Methods of Prostitution and Organized Crime Affiliation

The street walker

The call girl

The electronic call girl

The lonely hearts hustler

The computer selected date

The public relations gimmick

The photo studio

The secretarial service

The housewife

Kinsey report

Federal laws on prostitution

Venereal Disease and Its Association to Prostitution

Gonorrhea

Syphilis

The objective symptoms of V.D.

Summary

Questions for Discussion

10

ORGANIZED CRIME AND DRUG TRAFFIC

148

- Political Overview of Drug Traffic History and Organized Crime Involvement
- Organized crime patterns for drug distribution*
- The Role of Federal, State, and Local Units Against Confederation Drug Trafficking Activities
- The national drug control effort*
- Federal, state, and local cooperation*
- State and Local Roles in the Future of Drug Traffic Enforcement
- Summary
- Questions for Discussion

11

OBSCENITY AND PORNOGRAPHY

160

- A Moral and Political Viewpoint
- Legal refrain from obscenity interpretation*
- History
- Law Enforcement: Censors Without Laws
- The sociological reasoning behind obscenity enforcement*
- The police position*
- Methods of Enforcement
- Action against material*
- Injunction*
- Prosecution*
- Summary
- Questions for Discussion

12

ORGANIZED CRIME OF A WHITE COLLAR NATURE

181

- The Impact of White Collar Crimes Upon the Social Structure
- General implications on the social impact of organized crime*
- Economic impact of white collar organized crime upon society*
- How business enterprises are penetrated by organized crime*
- Typology of the Crimes and Techniques of the Criminal Racketeering
- The loan shark business*
- How the loan shark operates*
- Black markets*
- Techniques and Rationale for Investigating White Collar Crime
- Summary
- Questions for Discussion

13
ORGANIZED CRIME AND BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS		200
Business Acquisitions by Racketeering
The coercive contract with public agencies
Manipulation and Embezzlement of Stocks, Bonds, and Credit Cards
Securities manipulation and theft
The futures market
Special Frauds, Swindles, and Thefts
Fraud of the elderly
Welfare swindles
Political contributions The regulatory commissions
Stolen securities
Burglary
Summary
Questions for Discussion
14
MILITANT GROUPS: A FORCE IN ORGANIZED CRIME		213
Communist Party and Campus Reactionaries
Communist Party in the United States Students for a Democratic Society
The Young Socialist Alliance
Black Revolutionaries
Student National Coordinating Committee Revolutionary Action Movement
Republic of New Africa
Progressive Labor Party
Splinter Groups
Common Strategies Followed by the Militant Organized Groups
Summary
Questions for Discussion
15
EDUCATION AND TRAINING
FOR ORGANIZED CRIME CONTROL		230
Education in Academic Institutions
Projected college outline for the study of organized crime Specialized Training in Organized Crime for the Law Enforcement Officer
Organized crime training outline
Summary
Questions for Discussion

16
IN RETROSPECT	239
APPENDIX A	243
APPENDIX B	247
APPENDIX C	296
APPENDIX D	307
APPENDIX E	312
BIBLIOGRAPHY	315
INDEX	325