

Contents

Preface	vii
1 Aims and Plan	1
1.1 General aim and approach	1
1.2 Selection of issues	2
1.3 Structure of book	4
1.4 Interconnections between scales	7
2 The Family Planning Programme of India and the Study Area	9
2.1 Introduction	9
2.2 Structure of programme	9
2.3 Geographical background to the study area	17
3 Data Collection	21
3.1 Introduction	21
3.2 Decision-maker's scale	21
3.3 Micro-regional scale	31
3.4 District scale	32
3.5 Multi-District or regional scale	37
4 The Decision-maker's Scale	38
4.1 Introduction	38
4.2 Research questions and findings	38
4.3 Checklist of findings	57
5 The Micro-regional Scale	59
5.1 Introduction	59
5.2 Research questions and findings	59
5.3 Checklist of findings	78
6 The District Scale	79
6.1 Background	79
6.2 Planning and implementation at the district level	79
6.3 Research questions and findings	82
6.4 Checklist of findings	127
7 The Multi-District or Regional Scale	129
7.1 Introduction	129

7.2	Findings	129
7.3	Checklist of findings	136
8	The Family Planning Programme and Spatial Diffusion Theory	137
8.1	Introduction	137
8.2	Inadequacy of existing spatial diffusion theory	137
9	Implications of Findings for Planning	144
9.1	General	144
9.2	National level	144
9.3	Multi-national or regional level	145
9.4	District level	146
9.5	Micro-regional level	152
	Appendix I	153
	The Decision-maker's Scale –the FP Questionnaire	153
	Bibliography	156
	Abbreviations	162
	Index	163