

Contents

	page
Acknowledgments	xi
Introductory note	xiii
1 Historical background	1
The post-Revolutionary situation	2
2 Soviet and bourgeois sociology	12
The Soviet view of bourgeois sociology	15
3 The theory of research	21
4 The sociologists	30
Training and research institutes	30
The Soviet Sociological Association – Sixth World Congress of Sociology	41
Journals	49
5 Areas of research	52
Time budget research	54
Labour	59
Social structure and stratification	65
Marriage, the family, byt, divorce and the woman's role	71
Urban development, city planning and urban-rural relations	74
Criminology and juvenile delinquency	76
Religion	79

6	Public opinion research	82
7	Conclusion	108
	Glossary	113
	Appendices
	I Time budget research	115
	II Komsomol'skaia pravda public opinion polls	123
	Abbreviations	137
	Notes	138
	Bibliography	151
	Index	171