

Inhalt

Acknowledgement	VII
1 Introduction.....	1
1.1 Aim and Research Questions.....	4
1.2 State of Research: Historiography of the Holocaust in Lithuania	6
1.3 Research Design: Methodological Framework and Sources	13
2 Theoretical Framework.....	17
2.1 Mediated Memories of the Holocaust.....	17
3 Historical Background: Prehistory, the Holocaust, and its Aftermath.....	31
3.1 The Holocaust in Lithuania: Historical Legacies, Mass Murder, Collaboration, Resistance, and Rescue	31
3.2 After the Holocaust: Postwar Displacement and Migrating Jewish Memories	50
4 The Development of Holocaust Narratives: From National to Transnational Memories?	69
4.1 Holocaust Memories in Soviet Lithuania and Exile in the Postwar Years: Conflicting Narratives.....	69
4.1.1 The Jews and Holocaust Remembrance in Soviet Lithuania: “The Jewish Island” in the Soviet Union	69
4.1.2 Emergence of the Holocaust Debates in the Lithuanian Exile Media: Memory Actors, Conflicts, and the American Context ...	82
4.2 Holocaust Memories in Lithuania after 1990: Shifting Narratives.....	96
4.2.1 Holocaust Memory and Lithuanian Nation-State Building: Media Narratives of the June Uprising in Lithuania.....	96
4.2.2 Politics of Apology: Holocaust Memory, Media Antagonism, and Lithuanian Foreign Policy	113
4.2.3 The Paradoxes of Europeanization: Lithuanian and European Holocaust Memories	119

5	Iconographic Narratives: Imagery of the Holocaust in Lithuania	129
5.1	Homecoming Narratives in Documentary Films: The (Im)possibility of Diasporic Return.....	129
5.1.1	Landscape Memories: Returning to Ponary Forest in the Documentary Film Out of the Forest	129
5.1.2	A Documentary of Nostalgic Return to Vilna: Mira Jedwabnik van Doren and The World Was Ours	137
5.2	Photographic Narrations: Victims' and Perpetrators' Perspectives on the Holocaust in Lithuania.....	153
5.2.1	Clandestine Images of the Kovno Ghetto and the Visual Perspective of a Victim	153
5.2.2	Perpetrator's Iconography: Massacre of the Lithuanian Jews in the Lietūkis Garage	177
5.3	Gendered Narratives: Visualization of Children and Women.....	194
5.3.1	(Un)Speakable Images: Afterlife of Holocaust Children Photographs.....	194
5.3.2	Iconography of the Jewish Resistance: Engendering Masculine Partisan Narratives in Lithuania.....	210
5.3.3	Remembering the Vilna Ghetto Singer Liuba Levitska in the Film Ghetto: The Possibilities and Limits of Cinematic Visualization of Female Experience during the Holocaust	226
6	Conclusions.....	241
6.1	Arenas of Mediation and Representations of Holocaust Narratives	241
6.2	Gendered Memories.....	243
6.3	Changes in Holocaust Narratives	246
6.4	Critical Considerations	248
7	Zusammenfassung.....	251
8	List of Abbreviations.....	255
9	Bibliography	257
9.1	Literature.....	257
9.2	Films	287
10	Index	289
10.1	Name Index.....	289
10.2	Place Index.....	297