

Contents

Chapter 1	INTRODUCTION	1
Chapter 2	THE LEISURE PHENOMENON: BURDEN OR OPPORTUNITY?	4
	What Leisure Is	5
	Do We Have Discretionary Time?	6
	Leisure Misunderstood	6
	New Ways of Looking at Leisure	7
	Other Concepts of Leisure	8
	Unemployment: The Grim Kind of Free Time	10
	The American Character	10
	A Nation of Lowbrows?	10
	Working Hard at Having a Good Time	11
	The Hydra-headed Problems of Modern Society	11
	Cybernation	11
	Retraining is Difficult	12
	Filling Longer Vacation Periods	13
	Distributing Our Abundance	13
	The Population Explosion	14
	Lack of Living Space	15
	Making Longer Lives Meaningful	17
	Using Our Public Resources Wisely	17
	The Shrinking World	18
	The Changing Family	19
	Our Fragile Peace	19

	Human Rights	20
	Values	21
	The Lamp of Learning	21
Chapter 3	LEISURE AND LEARNING: GEMINI OF CULTURE	23
	The Worth of Knowledge	23
	Truth	24
	Material Progress	25
	Self-Development	25
	Leisure's Part in Learning	26
	Play	28
	Study	31
Chapter 4	LEISURE: WHO ENJOYS IT OR ENDURES IT?	35
	The Leisure Classes	37
	The Unemployed	38
	Low Salaried Employees Working Part Time	39
	Workers with Good Income Employed for Shorter Hours	39
	People with High Income, but Long Work Hours	39
	Those Who Have Leisure Thrust Upon Them	39
	The Aging	40
	The Ill and Disabled	40
	The Mentally Retarded	41
	The Economically and Culturally Deprived	42
	Groups Affected by Leisure	45
	The Family	45
	Women	47
	Teenagers	48
	The Retired	50
	Leisure's Social Recreatniks	51
	Antisocial Behavior	51
	The Mesmerized	52
	Thumb Twiddlers	52
	Literacy, Knowing, and Sophistication	53

Chapter 5	THE TASK BEFORE US: DEVELOPING LEISURE LITERACY	54
	Leisure's Service to the Individual	54
	Why Educate for Leisure?	56
	A Refutation for Thoughtless Critics	56
	Self-Fulfillment versus Self-Indulgence	57
	What Price Neglect?	57
	Reasons for Failure in Using Leisure Wisely	58
	The Happiness Chase	59
	Trail-blazing a New Path for Learning	61
	Specialization versus Liberal Education	62
	Our Changing Attitudes Towards Work	64
	What the Schools Can Do	64
	The New Place of Work in Leisure	67
	Spiritual Expression	67
	Service to Others	68
	Building	68
Chapter 6	TODAY'S CHALLENGE: REVAMPING VALUES IN A CHANGING WORLD	71
	Rearranging Our Values	71
	How Values are Formed	72
	Homogenized Values?	72
	La Dolce Vita: Does It Smother Drive?	73
	What Money Can't Buy	74
	Headway	76
	Reaching Beyond Our Grasp	76
	A Thirst for Living	76
	A Facelifting for Leisure	78
	Priming the Human Pump	79
	The Will	79
	Early Training	80
Chapter 7	WHOSE RESPONSIBILITY IS IT?	82
	The Interlocking Approach	83
	The Place of Specialization	84
	Reorganizing the Profession	85
	Guidlines for the Profession	85

	The Professional's Personal Inventory	87
	Developing the Professional	88
	Types of Leadership	89
Chapter 8	INVOLVING THE STUDENT: IGNITING THE CYLINDERS OF SELF-MOTIVATION	91
	Originality	91
	Time	92
	Learning Readiness	93
	Who Takes the Lead?	94
	Educators: Do They Understand?	95
	Aiming High	95
	Emphasizing the Plus	96
	Fail-safe Guarantee for Self-Determination	97
	The Power of Example	98
	High Standards: Incentive or Handicap?	99
Chapter 9	PRESCRIPTION FOR ACTION: WHAT CAN BE DONE	101
	Regenerating the Natural Environment	102
	Improving the Man-made Environment	103
	Government Teach-in for Leisure	103
	Spreading Enlightenment	104
	Government as Social Servant	104
	Recreation and Uncle Sam	106
	Guidelines for Government	107
	Tomorrow's Man	108
	The Obligation of the Family	108
	The Responsibility of Religion	109
	The Duty of the School	110
	Compulsory Leisure Education?	111
	The School of the Future	113
	Education for Gracious Living	115
	Acclimating Students to Leisure	115
	Developing the Well-rounded Individual	116
	Learning by Doing	117
	Bringing Subjects Alive	117
	Dollars for Leisure Education	118

CONTENTS xi

Non-Terminal Education	119
Additional Roles for Business and Labor	120
The Social Service Agencies	122
The New Philanthropy: The Giving of Self	122
Stretching Our Recreation Resources	123
Private Leisure Enterprises	123
The Camp	123
The Public as a Partner in Leisure Education	124
Tapping Youth's Idealism, Ingenuity, and Curiosity	124
The Arts and Sciences	125
A Total Community Push	127
Who Will Pay for Leisure Services?	127
Conclusion	128