

Contents

Preface	page xi
1 The Origins of Language	1	3 The Sounds of Language	28
The Divine Source	2	Phonetics	29
The Natural Sound Source	3	Consonants	29
The “Bow-Wow” Theory	3	Voiced and Voiceless Sounds	29
The “Pooh-Pooh” Theory	3	Place of Articulation	30
The Musical Source	4	Familiar Symbols	31
The Social Interaction Source	5	Unfamiliar Symbols	31
The Physical Adaptation Source	5	Transcribing Sounds (Not Letters)	32
Teeth and Lips	6	Manner of Articulation	33
Mouth and Tongue	6	A Consonant Chart	34
Larynx and Pharynx	6	Glottal Stops and Flaps	34
The Tool-Making Source	7	Vowels	35
The Human Brain	7	Diphthongs	36
The Genetic Source	8	American and British Diphthongs	37
The Innateness Hypothesis	8	Subtle Individual Variation	37
Study Questions	9	Study Questions	38
Tasks	9	Tasks	39
Discussion Topics/Projects	10	Discussion Topics/Projects	41
Further Reading	11	Further Reading	42
2 Animals and Human Language	13	4 The Sound Patterns of Language	44
Communication	14	Phonology	45
Properties of Human Language	14	Phonemes	46
Displacement	15	Natural Classes	46
Arbitrariness	15	Phones and Allophones	47
Cultural Transmission	16	Complementary Distribution	48
Productivity	17	Minimal Pairs and Sets	48
Duality	18	Phonotactics	48
Talking to Animals	18	Syllables	49
Chimpanzees and Language	19	Consonant Clusters	49
Washoe	19	Coarticulation Effects	50
Sarah and Lana	20	Assimilation	50
The Controversy	21	Nasalization	50
Kanzi	22	Elision	51
Using Language	22	Normal Speech	51
Study Questions	23	Study Questions	52
Tasks	23	Tasks	52
Discussion Topics/Projects	24	Discussion Topics/Projects	55
Further Reading	26	Bob Belviso Translated	56
		Further Reading	56

5 Word Formation	58	The Parts of Speech	94
Neologisms	59	Agreement	95
Etymology	59	Grammatical Gender	96
Borrowing	60	Traditional Analysis	96
Loan-Translation	60	The Prescriptive Approach	97
Compounding	61	Captain Kirk's Infinitive	97
Blending	61	The Descriptive Approach	98
Clipping	62	Structural Analysis	98
Hypocorisms	62	Constituent Analysis	99
Backformation	62	Subjects and Objects	100
Conversion	63	Word Order	101
Coinage	64	Language Typology	101
Acronyms	64	Why Study Grammar?	102
Derivation	65	Study Questions	103
Prefixes and Suffixes	65	Tasks	103
Infixes	65	Discussion Topics/Projects	109
Multiple Processes	66	Further Reading	110
Study Questions	67
Tasks	68	8 Syntax	112
Discussion Topics/Projects	72	Syntactic Rules	113
Further Reading	73	A Generative Grammar	113
		Deep and Surface Structure	114
6 Morphology	75	Structural Ambiguity	114
Morphology	76	Syntactic Analysis	115
Morphemes	76	Phrase Structure Rules	116
Free and Bound Morphemes	77	Lexical Rules	116
Lexical and Functional Morphemes	77	Tree Diagrams	117
Derivational Morphemes	78	Tree Diagrams of English Sentences	118
Inflectional Morphemes	78	Just Scratching the Surface	119
Morphological Description	79	Study Questions	120
Morphs, Allomorphs and Special Cases	80	Tasks	121
Other Languages	81	Discussion Topics/Projects	126
Kanuri	81	Further Reading	128
Ganda	81
Ilocano	82	9 Semantics	129
Tagalog	82	Meaning	130
Study Questions	83	Semantic Features	131
Tasks	84	Componential Analysis	131
Discussion Topics/Projects	89	Words as Containers of Meaning	132
Further Reading	91	Semantic Roles	132
		Agent and Theme	132
7 Grammar	92	Instrument and Experiencer	133
English Grammar	93	Location, Source and Goal	133
Traditional Grammar	93	Lexical Relations	134

Synonymy	134	Hedges	175
Antonymy	135	Implicatures	175
Hyponymy	135	Background Knowledge	176
Prototypes	137	Schemas and Scripts	177
Homophones and Homonyms	137	Study Questions	178
Polysemy	138	Tasks	178
Word Play	138	Discussion Topics/Projects	181
Metonymy	139	Further Reading	182
Collocation	139
Concordance	140	12 Language and the Brain	184
Study Questions	141	Neurolinguistics	185
Tasks	142	Language Areas in the Brain	185
Discussion Topics/Projects	146	Broca's Area	186
Further Reading	147	Wernicke's Area	186
		The Motor Cortex and the Arcuate Fasciculus	187
10 Pragmatics	149	The Localization View	187
Invisible Meaning	150	Tongue Tips and Slips	188
Context	151	The Tip of the Tongue Phenomenon	188
Deixis	152	Slips of the Tongue	188
Reference	153	Slips of the Brain	189
Inference	153	Slips of the Ear	189
Anaphora	154	Aphasia	190
Presupposition	155	Broca's Aphasia	190
Pragmatic Markers	155	Wernicke's Aphasia	191
Politeness	156	Conduction Aphasia	191
Negative and Positive Face	156	Dichotic Listening	192
Speech Acts	157	Left Brain, Right Brain	193
Direct and Indirect Speech Acts	157	The Critical Period	193
Study Questions	158	Genie	194
Tasks	159	Study Questions	195
Discussion Topics/Projects	163	Tasks	195
Further Reading	165	Discussion Topics/Projects	197
		Further Reading	198
11 Discourse Analysis	167
Discourse	168	13 First Language Acquisition	201
Interpreting Discourse	168	Acquisition	202
Cohesion	169	Input	202
Coherence	170	Caregiver Speech	203
Conversation Analysis	171	The Acquisition Schedule	203
Turn-Taking	171	Cooing	204
Pauses and Filled Pauses	172	Babbling	204
Adjacency Pairs	172	The One-Word Stage	205
Insertion Sequences	173	The Two-Word Stage	205
The Co-operative Principle	174

Telegraphic Speech	206	Oralism	237
The Acquisition Process	206	Signed English	237
Learning through Imitation?	207	Origins of ASL	238
Learning through Correction?	207	The Structure of Signs	238
Developing Morphology	208	Shape and Orientation	239
Developing Syntax	209	Location	239
Forming Questions	209	Movement	239
Forming Negatives	210	Primes	239
Developing Semantics	211	Facial Expressions and Finger-Spelling	240
Later Developments	212	Representing Signs	240
Study Questions	213	The Meaning of Signs	241
Tasks	213	Sign Languages as Natural Languages	242
Discussion Topics/Projects	216	Study Questions	243
Further Reading	217	Tasks	243
 		Discussion Topics/Projects	244
14 Second Language Acquisition/ Learning	219	Further Reading	245
Second Language Learning	220	16 Written Language	247
Acquisition and Learning	220	Writing	248
Acquisition Barriers	221	Pictograms	248
The Age Factor	221	Ideograms	249
Affective Factors	222	Logograms	250
Focus on Teaching Method	222	Phonographic Writing	251
The Grammar–Translation Method	223	The Rebus Principle	251
The Audiolingual Method	223	Syllabic Writing	252
Communicative Approaches	223	Alphabetic Writing	253
Focus on the Learner	224	Written English	254
Transfer	224	English Orthography	255
Interlanguage	225	Study Questions	256
Motivation	225	Tasks	256
Input and Output	226	Discussion Topics/Projects	258
Task-Based Learning	227	Further Reading	260
Communicative Competence	227
Study Questions	228
Tasks	228	17 Language History and Change	262
Discussion Topics/Projects	231	Family Trees	263
Further Reading	232	Indo-European	264
 		Cognates	264
15 Gestures and Sign Languages	234	Comparative Reconstruction	265
Gestures	235	Comparing Cognates	265
Iconics	235	Sound Reconstruction	266
Deictics	235	Word Reconstruction	266
Beats	236	The History of English	267
Types of Sign Languages	236	Old English	267

Middle English	268	Speech Accommodation	300
Sound Changes	269	Convergence	300
Metathesis	269	Divergence	301
Epenthesis	270	Register	301
Prothesis	270	Jargon	301
Syntactic Changes	270	Slang	302
Loss of Inflections	271	Taboo Terms	302
Semantic Changes	271	African American English	303
Broadening of Meaning	272	Vernacular Language	303
Narrowing of Meaning	272	The Sounds of a Vernacular	304
Diachronic and Synchronic Variation	272	The Grammar of a Vernacular	304
Study Questions	273	Study Questions	306
Tasks	273	Tasks	306
Discussion Topics/Projects	276	Discussion Topics/Projects	309
Further Reading	277	Further Reading	309
18 Regional Variation in Language	279	20 Language and Culture	311
The Standard Language	280	Culture	312
Accent and Dialect	280	Categories	312
Variation in Grammar	281	Kinship Terms	313
Dialectology	281	Time Concepts	313
Regional Dialects	282	Linguistic Relativity	314
Isoglosses	282	The Sapir–Whorf Hypothesis	314
Dialect Boundaries	283	Against the Sapir–Whorf Hypothesis	315
The Dialect Continuum	284	Snow	315
Bilingualism	284	Non-lexicalized Categories	316
Diglossia	285	Cognitive Categories	316
Language Planning	286	Classifiers	317
Pidgins	287	Social Categories	317
Creoles	288	Address Terms	318
The Post-Creole Continuum	288	Gender	319
Study Questions	289	Gendered Words	319
Tasks	289	Gendered Structures	320
Discussion Topics/Projects	292	Gendered Speech	320
Further Reading	292	Same-Gender Talk	321
		Gendered Interaction	321
		Study Questions	322
		Tasks	322
		Discussion Topics/Projects	326
		Further Reading	327
19 Social Variation in Language	295	Glossary	330
Sociolinguistics	296	References	345
Social Dialects	296	Index	362
Education and Occupation	297
Social Markers	298
Speech Style and Style-Shifting	299
Prestige	300		