

Brief Contents

Foreword	xv
Preface	xix
1 An Introduction to Ethical Decision-Making	1
Part I: Foundations	27
2 Information Ethics: A Profession Seeks the Truth	29
3 Privacy: Looking for Solitude in the Global Village	67
4 Loyalty: Choosing between Competing Allegiances	99
5 Mass Media in a Democratic Society: Keeping a Promise	131
6 Informing a Just Society	173
Part II: Applications	205
7 Strategic Communication: Does Client Advocate Mean Consumer Adversary?	207
8 Picture This: Technology, Visual Information, and Evolving Standards	239
9 Media Economics: The Deadline Meets the Bottom Line	275

10	The Ethical Dimensions of Art and Entertainment	311
11	Becoming a Moral Adult	349
	References	363
	Index	383

Contents

Foreword	xv
Preface	xix
1 An Introduction to Ethical Decision-Making	1
Essay: Cases and moral systems	22
Deni Elliott
Case 1-A: How to read a case study	24
Philip Patterson
Introduction to Part I	27
2 Information Ethics: A Profession Seeks the Truth	29
Case 2-A: Rules of engagement: Mary Louise Kelly and the Mike Pompeo interview	50
Lee Wilkins
Case 2-B: Don't tweet ill of the dead	53
Chad Painter
Case 2-C: Dr. Doolittle not: Debunking fake animal stories	56
Lee Wilkins
Case 2-D: Anonymous or confidential: Unnamed news sources in the news	58
Lee Wilkins
Case 2-E: Death as content: Social responsibility and the documentary filmmaker	61
Tanner Hawkins

	Case 2-F: When is objective reporting irresponsible reporting? Theodore L. Glasser	63
3	Privacy: Looking for Solitude in the Global Village	67
	Case 3-A: Harry and Meghan: Context and control Lee Wilkins	82
	Case 3-B: Guilty by Google: Unpublishing and crime reporting in the digital age Deborah L. Dwyer	84
	Case 3-C: Drones and the news Kathleen Bartzen Culver	87
	Case 3-D: Doxxer, doxxer, give me the news? Mark Anthony Poepsel	91
	Case 3-E: Looking for Richard Simmons Lee Wilkins	94
	Case 3-F: Children and framing: The use of children's images in an anti-same-sex marriage ad Yang Liu	96
4	Loyalty: Choosing between Competing Allegiances	99
	Case 4-A: Cuomo interviews Cuomo Chad Painter	113
	Case 4-B: To watch or to report: What journalists were thinking in the midst of disaster Lee Wilkins	116
	Case 4-C: Public/on-air journalist versus private/online life: Can it work? Madison Hagood	117
	Case 4-D: When you are the story: Sexual harassment in the newsroom Lee Wilkins	120
	Case 4-E: Where everybody knows your name: Reporting and relationships in a small market Ginny Whitehouse	123
	Case 4-F: Quit, blow the whistle, or go with the flow? Robert D. Wakefield	126
5	Mass Media in a Democratic Society: Keeping a Promise	131
	Case 5-A: Murder the media: Ethics on January 6, 2021 Lee Wilkins	150

Case 5-B: A second draft of history: The New York Times 's 1619 Project Lee Wilkins	155
Case 5-C: When journalists question algorithms and automated systems Xerxes Minocher and Kathleen Bartzen Culver	158
Case 5-D: Watchdog or horndog: Daily Mail , revenge porn, and Katie Hill Chad Painter	161
Case 5-E: Mayor Jim West's computer Ginny Whitehouse	164
Case 5-F: For God and country: The media and national security Jeremy Littau and Mark Slagle	168
6 Informing a Just Society	173
Case 6-A: The Kansas City Star in black and white: A newspaper apologizes for 140 years of coverage Lee Wilkins	187
Case 6-B: Journalism and activism? When identity becomes political Rebecca Smith	190
Case 6-C: Where's the line? Covering racial protest on a college campus Nicole Kraft	194
Case 6-D: Spotlight : It takes a village to abuse a child Lee Wilkins	196
Case 6-E: Cincinnati Enquirer 's heroin beat Chad Painter	199
Case 6-F: GoldieBlox: Building a future on theft Scott Burgess	202
Introduction to Part II	205
7 Strategic Communication: Does Client Advocate Mean Consumer Adversary?	207
Case 7-A: Fyre Festival becomes Fyre Fraud Emily Horvath and Chad Painter	223
Case 7-B: Through the glass darkly: Peloton, body shaming, and America's odd relationship with exercise Lee Wilkins	226

Case 7-C: Weedvertising	228
Lee Wilkins
Case 7-D: Keeping up with the Kardashians' prescription drug choices	231
Tara Walker
Case 7-E: Between a (Kid) Rock and a hard place	233
Molly Shor
Case 7-F: Was that an Apple computer I saw? Product placement in the United States and abroad	235
Philip Patterson
8 Picture This: Technology, Visual Information, and Evolving Standards	239
Case 8-A: New York Times ends political cartoons	252
Chad Painter
Case 8-B: Did you meme that? The unhoppy life of Pepe the Frog	255
Lee Wilkins
Case 8-C: Remember my fame: Digital necromancy and the immortal celebrity	258
Samantha Most
Case 8-D: Problem photos and public outcry	259
Jon Roosenraad
Case 8-E: Above the fold: Balancing newsworthy photos with community standards	263
Jim Godbold and Janelle Hartman
Case 8-F: Horror in Soweto	268
Sue O'Brien
9 Media Economics: The Deadline Meets the Bottom Line	275
Case 9-A: Twitter's Trump problem	292
Chad Painter
Case 9-B: When investigative reporting is bad for business	296
Chad Painter
Case 9-C: And the Oscar rejects . . . Frida Mom	298
Chad Painter
Case 9-D: Who controls the local news? Sinclair Broadcast Group and "must-runs"	300
Keena Neal
Case 9-E: Contested interests, contested terrain: The New York Times Code of Ethics	303
Lee Wilkins and Bonnie Brennen

Case 9-F: Automated journalism: The rise of robot reporters Chad Painter	308
10 The Ethical Dimensions of Art and Entertainment	311
Case 10-A: Documenting culture clash in American Factory Emily Callam and Chad Painter	331
Case 10-B: The Daily Show 's one-client legal team Chad Painter	334
Case 10-C: #OscarsSoWhite: Representation in the creative process Lee Wilkins	336
Case 10-D: Get Out : When the horror is race Michael Fuhlhage and Lee Wilkins	339
Case 10-E: To die for: Making terrorists of gamers in Modern Warfare 2 Philip Patterson	342
Case 10-F: The Onion : Finding humor in mass shootings Chad Painter	345
11 Becoming a Moral Adult	349
References	363
Index	383