

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction 1

Danielle Allen and Jennifer S. Light

PART I. TOWARD PARTICIPATORY POLITICS

1 Putting Our Conversation in Context: Youth, Old
Media, and Political Participation, 1800–1971 19
Jennifer S. Light

2 2 Youth, New Media, and the Rise of Participatory Politics 35
— Joseph Kahne, Ellen Middaugh, and Danielle Allen

PART II. PARTICIPATION UP CLOSE: CASE STUDIES

3 3 Impure Dissent: Hip Hop and the Political Ethics of Marginalized Black Urban Youth 59
Tommie Shelby

4 4 “Undocumented, Unafraid, and Unapologetic”: DREAM Activists,
Immigrant Politics, and the Queering of Democracy 80
Cristina Beltrán

5 The Dangers of Transparent Friends: Crossing the Public and Intimate Spheres 105
Wendy Chun

PART III. PARTICIPATION OUT FAR: CONCEPTS AND MECHANISMS

6 Cute Cats to the Rescue? Participatory Media and Political Expression 131
Ethan Zuckerman

7 Viral Engagement: Fast, Cheap, and Broad, but Good for Democracy? 155
Archon Fung and Jennifer Shkabatur

- 8      Reconceiving Public Spheres: The Flow Dynamics Model    178
          Danielle Allen

PART IV. PARTICIPATORY VISTAS

- 9      Pursuing Cognitive Democracy    211
          Henry Farrell and Cosma Rohilla Shalizi
- 10     Reclaiming Disinterestedness for the Digital Era    232
          Howard Gardner
- 11     Achieving Rooted Cosmopolitanism in a Digital Age    254
          Angel Parham and Danielle Allen
- 12     Acting Politically in a Digital Age    273
          Noëlle McAfee
- Conclusion    293
          Danielle Allen and Jennifer S. Light

NOTES    295

REFERENCES    327

CONTRIBUTORS    363

INDEX    367