

Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Marc Boone, Man and Historian	9
Bibliography of Marc Boone (1977-2021)	15
List of Coinages and Abbreviations	47

Finance and Fiscality

Triumphant Private Initiative versus Hesitant Government Action?	51
On Indirect Tax Farming in Late-Medieval Cities
Gifts and Bribes, Aspects of Urban Sociability in the Late Middle Ages	75
The Case of Ghent during the Burgundian Period
Fiscal and Financial strategies of the Urban Elites and the Nascent Burgundian State in the Ancient County of Flanders (from the Fourteenth to the Sixteenth Centuries)	93
In Defence of a Medieval Banker
Tommaso Portinari and the Burgundian State	111

Modernity, Space, and Conflict

Rulers, Patricians and Burghers	135
The Great and the Little Traditions of Urban Revolt in the Low Countries (co-authored with Maarten Prak)
Destroying and Reconstructing the City	163
The Inculcation and Arrogation of Princely Power in the Burgundian-Habsburg Netherlands (Fourteenth-Sixteenth Centuries)
Cities in Late Medieval Europe	187
The Promise and Curse of Modernity
Urban Space and Political Conflict in Late Medieval Flanders	207

Private Life and Sexuality

The Discreet Charms of the Bourgeoisie in Ghent around the Mid-Fifteenth Century	225
Simon Borluut's Financial Account Book (1450-63)
State Power and Illicit Sexuality	241
The Persecution of Sodomy in Late Medieval Bruges
Tabula Gratulatoria	261