

Contents

Preface and acknowledgments	ix
Abbreviations	xiv
1 The new town idea 1898–1939	1
The idea	1
The philosophy of the founders	5
Inter-war housing and social problems	11
Social research on public housing estates	13
Garden cities and public policy	16
The inter-war activities of the GCTPA	17
2 Wartime deliberation; post-war legislation	20
Platforms into policy	25
Lord Reith's New Towns Committee and its philosophy	28
Reith on ownership and management	34
The New Towns Act 1946	35
The structure and powers of development corporations	37
3 The end of the beginning: the Mark One new towns	41
Housing	43
Relations with statutory bodies	47
Relations with central government	50
Relations with industry and commerce	53
The aesthetes versus the missionaries	56
The policy of government in the 1950s	59

4	Renaissance and redirection 1960–74	61
	Relations within central government	67
	Relations between development corporations and local authorities	69
	Relations with the private sector	76
	Development corporations and commercial viability	79
5	The ownership and management of new town assets	84
	The structure and work of the Commission for the New Towns	86
	Housing assets and the move to owner-occupation	92
	Land and other assets	102
6	Balance and self-containment	105
	Objectives	105
	The mechanisms	108
	The achievement	113
	Social class in the new towns	117
	Changing circumstances	124
	Consequences	127
	Neighbourhood, community and citizenship	129
7	Regional growth and urban decline	132
	Regional policies and philosophies	132
	Inter-regional policies and incentives	137
	Intra-regional objectives and inner-city decline	146
	The redirection of government policy	150
8	Reappraisal 1974–8	157
	The consultation documents	157
	The Expenditure Committee	160
	Response and review	172
	The New Towns (Amendment) Act 1976	175
	New towns in 'other planning situations'?	179
9	What is the 'new towns policy'?	184
	Attitudes and mechanisms	185
	The changing ideology of the new towns	198
	The end of the new towns policy?	202
	Outline chronology	205
	Bibliography	207
	Index	215