

CONTENTS

---

Preface	page vii
1 Introduction	1
Patterns of sociability in occupational and community studies - Friendship and kinship - Outline of the book
2 Ways of Seeing	9
Sociological perspectives of sociable relationships - Rules of relevance
3 The Selden Hey Study	19
The research setting - Selection of the sample - Star construction - The interviews
4 The Nature of Friendship and Kinship	30
Aspects of kinship in Western culture - Friend relationships - Aspects of friendship in Western culture
5 Middle-Class Sociability	46
Social skills - The development of middle-class friendships - Variations in friendship - The breaking of friendship - 'Real' and 'true' friends
6 Working-Class Sociability	69
Previous studies - The Selden Hey material - Discussion
7 Sociability with Kin	92
Kin relationships - Parent-adult-child sociability - Relationships with siblings - Variations in sibling relationships - Secondary kin
8 The Structure of Sociability	116
External aspects of sociability networks - Social class - Family- and life-cycle position - Geographical mobility - Gender differences - Internal aspects of sociability networks - Network analysis - Elizabeth Bott
9 Conclusion	135
The 'general thesis' - Other considerations
Appendix: Social Class and Patterns of Sociability	142
Bibliography	146
Index	153