

Contents

PROLOGUE: Fault Lines of Rich and Poor 1

1. Invading the Tenements 11
2. Bank on the Bowery 31
3. Prescribing Reform 49
4. Loving the Poor with Severity 63
5. The Business of Godly Charity 89
6. Reaching Out to the Rich 107
7. Between Empathy and Prejudice 123
8. The Limits of Private Philanthropy 135
9. Killing Workers for Profit 151
10. The Primacy of Property 165
11. Sisters in Struggle 181
12. To Cooperate or Condescend 201
13. Sisters at Odds 213
14. Hard Fists, Short Fuses on the City Rails 227
15. Making the World Safe for Inequality 245

EPILOGUE: Recognizing Class in Ourselves 273

Abbreviations 281

Notes 285

Acknowledgments 361

Index 365